

THE ORDER OF WORSHIP

Sunday, April 1, 2018

9:00 and 11:15 a.m.

EASTER

THE PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

In this place where Your Name, O God, is above every name, where Your truth is sought and Your faith cherished, grant Your blessing upon all who worship You in sincerity and truth. Here may the weary find rest; the lonely, friendship; the saddened, comfort; the fearful, courage; the discouraged, hope; the weak, strength; the strong, discipline; and all of us the reassurance of Your forgiving and empowering mercy, and the desire and opportunity to invest our lives for the good of all people and the glory of God.

OUR APPROACH TO GOD

RITUAL OF FRIENDSHIP, COMMON CONCERNS OF THE CHURCH

CHORAL INTROIT "Christ Is Risen" Chepponis

CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: Christ is risen!
People: Christ is risen indeed!
 Leader: This is the day which the Lord has made.
People: Let us rejoice and be glad in it.
 Leader: Let us worship God.

* HYMN OF PRAISE No. 232 EASTER HYMN
 "Jesus Christ Is Risen Today"

* PRAYER OF CONFESSION
Almighty God, in raising Jesus from the grave, you shattered the power of sin and death. We confess that we remain captive to doubt and fear, bound by the ways that lead to death. We overlook the poor and the hungry, and pass by those who mourn; we are deaf to the cries of the oppressed and indifferent to calls for peace; we despise the weak, and abuse the earth you made. Forgive us, God of mercy. Help us to trust your power to change our lives and make us new, that we may know the joy of life abundant given in Jesus Christ, the risen Lord.

* ASSURANCE OF PARDON
 Leader: Friends, believe the good news of the gospel.
People: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven. Amen.

* GLORIA PATRI (Hymnal, No. 581)
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, Amen.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

New Earth and The Resurrection from a branding and marketing perspective.

Over the last twenty years I have had the privilege to work with folks at large fortune 500 companies to mom and pop start-ups. Never in all those years would I have ever aligned the similarities of that career to the scripture I read this week in preparation for this Harbinger.

In Isaiah 65:17-25 we receive a promise from The Lord that “former things will not be remembered...but be glad and rejoice forever in what I will create.” And “No longer will my people build houses and others live in them, or plant and others eat...”. “My chosen ones will long enjoy the work of their hands.”

As I read this passage I think about the countless CEOs who I have heard passionately describe how they wish they could inspire their team to learn from past mistakes, to move on quickly to celebrate new opportunity, and to embrace new vision for the future. A rebrand if you will. I see God as our CEO, at times rallying the troops to believe and even getting frustrated when “his employees” are reluctant to step up and take action in a new promise or future. He has sent his head of HR, his only Son to aid in day-to-day employee engagement and to find what motivates us all to come along as active, contributing team members instead of just watching the clock for the 5pm whistle. To me this verse resembles the cries of a leader passionately inspiring his team to have faith, rebrand, carry on, do our best and in return we will reap the rewards.

In Luke 24:1-12 we learn about the Resurrection of Christ from the tomb and the actions of the non-believing apostles and the Women who shared of the empty tomb.

Similarly as social media and word-of-mouth marketing has become a mainstay in today's marketing channels, it strikes me ironic that the testimonial from the women to the apostles fell on a few deaf ears. As today, while there are countless believers in all things online, there continue to be a significant percent of sceptics that need to see with their own eyes and have their own experience regardless of how many reviews they read or gold stars they count. They seek to come to their own conclusions before they too wish to put their reputation on the line.

My personal take away from this analogy, — while I do have my own influencers and trusted advisors it is ok, as Peter, to need first-hand experiences to rationalize my own perspective, opinions and faith. I believe just as consumers fall into many levels of buying (“believing”) segments, so do we each have our own comfort level of faith that ebbs and flows as we both hear from others AND experience first-hand.

I hope and pray that I can serve as a loyal and faithful employee of The Lord, my CEO, and I for one enjoy being an active participant and consumer of Christianity and hope that my passions and beliefs in turn influence my friends and followers.
