Sunday, January 28, 2024 |On Demand on Facebook & YouTube|9a & 11:15a

Fourth Sunday after Epiphany

Preparation for Worship

Let me do everything for the sake of You. Let me humble myself and exalt You. Let me think of nothing except You. Let me die to myself and live in You...Let me fear for myself, let me fear You, and let me be among those who are chosen by You. Let me distrust myself and put my trust in You. Let me be willing to obey for the sake of You. Let me cling to nothing save only to You, and let me be poor because of You. Look upon me, that I may love You. Call me that I may see You, and forever enjoy You. Amen.

When you ask us to forgive joyfully,
we cling tightly to our wounds.
Have mercy on us, gracious Lord.
Still our minds and quiet our souls.
Change us into the disciples you have created us to be,
so that we would live simply, love generously,
follow faithfully, and work for reconciliation in your world.
In Christ’s name we pray. Amen.

WORSHIP NOTES

NURSERY
Childcare is available for infants through 4K. Our nurturing staff of experienced caregivers and parent volunteers offers a welcoming environment for children. The Nursery is located on the mezzanine level. The entrance is at Westminster Drive, at the columbarium or near the Westminster Weekday School offices. The Family Lounge, located down the stairs from the front office and straight down the hallway on the right, is available for any child caregiver and includes worship livestream, comfortable seating, and a changing table.

WORSHIP BAGS
Each Sunday we offer worship bags in the Atrium for children. The worship bags are designed to include reusable items that engage children in open ended play during worship. While children attend worship with their families, they can participate in worship and play to make meaning in faith. Please return the zipper bag and its contents each Sunday.

VOLUME LXXVI | January 28, 2024 | No. 41

From the Pews, Parks Workman

Hallelujah! Praise God! One of the most cherished moments of worship each Sunday is the Doxology. "Praise God from whom all blessings flow." To hear the congregation sing it in unison as we share our gifts back with God can really touch the soul.

I feel the same nurturing comfort when I read Psalm 111. No matter the chaos in my life, these words provide a light that reminds me of the many blessings I have truly received. It grounds me in gratitude.

We just entered a new year, and it begs pondering on the passing of time. The inevitable wheel of time keeps turning and spinning out a new day every day. Each passing day is a gift to be cherished or wasted.

I, unfortunately, have wasted too many days getting lost in stress, secular pursuits, the desire for control, cheap distractions. I lose sight of the gift before me, often drowning in a sea of turmoil and relentless pursuits.

Psalm 111 can serve as a daily life raft and guidepost to refocus. Praise God. Worship. Have gratitude for the many blessings from God. Remember His redeeming grace. Know that trust in God is wisdom. Try to follow His lead. Importantly, praise God!

As the new days are gifted to me this year, I will try to reflect on Psalm 111. I will bookend the great gift of each day by praising God! Perhaps this will lead to wisdom to recognize and embrace the many blessings that have been given to me, and the light will continue to shine through the chaos. Praise God! Hallelujah!

ANNUAL CONGREGATIONAL MEETING:

The Session has called the annual meeting of the congregation this Sunday, January 28, immediately following the 11:15a worship service. The purpose of the meeting is to present the 2024 budget, to vote on the 2024 terms of call for the pastoral staff, and to elect 13 elders to the Session. The nominees for elder are Ben Bloodworth, Ben Dillard, Will Edwards, Kathryn Freedman, Mary Gentry, Claire Gilliland, George Howell, Creighton Likes, Carrie Marguet, Trey Morrow, Mandy Pruitt, Elizabeth Timmons, and Sam White, Jr.

SERMON SERIES: THE FABRIC OF FAITH

It is second-nature for Christians to talk about “having faith,” “growing up in the faith,” or “coming to faith in Jesus Christ.” But what do we mean when we use the word, “faith”? Over the upcoming weeks, our sermon series will explore the different ways that Scripture describes what it means to have faith. Topics will include faith as patience, faith as urgency, and faith as friendship. Today’s sermon will explore faith as fear of the Lord.

RISE AGAINST HUNGER

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 11
FOLLOWING THE 11:15a WORSHIP SERVICE

It has long been a tradition of this church to have a service opportunity centered around food insecurity on Youth Sunday. This year we are thrilled to host Rise Against Hunger for a church-wide meal-packing event! Join WPCYG and your church family to pack over 5,000 meals in just over an hour following our second service! We will have a quick lunch immediately following the service in the 200 Hall and Entrance Pavillion. To sign up for lunch and to volunteer for Rise, visit the registration page of Westminster's website.

HANDS-ONLY CPR CLASS

February is designated as Heart Month, focusing on heart health and cardiovascular disease prevention. What better way to celebrate this initiative than participating in a hands-only CPR class! According to the American Heart Association, about 90 percent of people who suffer out-of-hospital cardiac arrests die. CPR, especially if performed immediately, can double or triple a cardiac arrest victim’s chance of survival.

On Wednesday, February 21, at 4p, a 45-minute class will be held at Westminster in Room 209 and is open to 15 participants (teenagers and adults only). The class will teach basic hands-only CPR (compressions), NOT certification for full CPR training. We also hope to have an AED demonstration and practice as well. Childcare will be available during the class. Contact Emily Cole (864-612-6185) with questions. To sign up for the class, go to <https://wpc-online.org/events-registration/cpr-class/>.

ADULT EDUCATION ON SUNDAY MORNINGS

We at Westminster believe that education is essential for discipleship and hope that what you learn in this place will transform your living beyond our doors. This quarter kicks off this Sunday, January 28, and will run each Sunday through February 25. You are welcome to join any class at any point!

1. The Last Days of Christ
Led by Leigh Stuckey

Room 209

"The Christmas Feast is already a fading memory, / And already the mind begins to be vaguely aware / Of Lent and Good Friday which cannot, after all, now / Be very far off." (from For the Time Being , Auden). As we prepare to move into Lent, with the liturgical scent of pine a fading memory, we turn our eyes towards the final, climactic stories of Jesus' earthly life. Join us for this five week lecture-style series during which we will explore Peter's confession, the triumphal entry, John's account of the Last Supper, the Synoptic Last Supper, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday.

2. The Confessions by St. Augustine of Hippo
Taught by John MacCarthy

Room 211

St. Augustine (354-430 CE) is viewed as one of the most important of the early “Church Fathers.” He is often credited with providing the initial philosophical basis for Christian theology, and his writings have had a major impact on the development of Western philosophy, Western Christianity, and developmental psychology. He is also considered one of the theological fathers of the Protestant Reformation and is credited with our understanding of doctrines of grace, predestination, and original sin. St. Augustine's Confessions is generally considered one of his most important (and accessible) works. It is the story of his journey from “sinful youth” to his adult conversion to Christianity (thanks to his mother’s constant “help”). I personally find it to be one of the most hilariously funny works by a serious philosopher/theologian that I have had the pleasure to read (and I hope that by the end of the class, you will share this opinion as well). The course will begin with a brief overview of the life and significance of St. Augustine and some of the relevant heresies of the time and then proceed to an in-depth study of Confessions.

3. The Flock Reads the Psalms
Led by Members of The Flock

Room 212

Join the Flock (an age-and-stage group at Westminster with folks ranging from mid-40s through late 50s) for an in-depth study of a book of the Bible. Each week the group will read and explore a text from the Psalms. This discussion-style class is facilitated by members of the Flock.

Mark your calendars:
Celtic Spirituality and Our Scottish Roots
March 12-23, 2025: A Pilgrimage to Scotland

Join Westminster members and families on our inaugural international pilgrimage! The 12-day journey provides a deep dive into the Scottish roots of the Presbyterian Church as well as its contemporary expression in the Church of Scotland. Pilgrims will also connect with the contemporary Iona community in Glasgow and on Iona (where aspiring golfers are welcome to choose a tee time). Highlights include Edinburgh and Glasgow, the Isle of Iona with its evocative abbey, and key sites related to the life and ministry of John Knox in St. Andrews and Edinburgh. Travelers of all ages are welcome. The trip is designed to partially overlap with Greenville County Schools Spring Break. Contact Leigh Stuckey for more information. Final pricing and details to reserve your spot will be released in the coming months.

Taught by John MacCarthy

Room 211

St. Augustine (354-430 CE) is viewed as one of the most important of the early “Church Fathers.” He is often credited with providing the initial philosophical basis for Christian theology, and his writings have had a major impact on the development of Western philosophy, Western Christianity, and developmental psychology. He is also considered one of the theological fathers of the Protestant Reformation and is credited with our understanding of doctrines of grace, predestination, and original sin. St. Augustine's Confessions is generally considered one of his most important (and accessible) works. It is the story of his journey from “sinful youth” to his adult conversion to Christianity (thanks to his mother’s constant “help”). I personally find it to be one of the most hilariously funny works by a serious philosopher/theologian that I have had the pleasure to read (and I hope that by the end of the class, you will share this opinion as well). The course will begin with a brief overview of the life and significance of St. Augustine and some of the relevant heresies of the time and then proceed to an in-depth study of Confessions.

3. The Flock Reads the Psalms
Led by Members of The Flock

Room 212

Join the Flock (an age-and-stage group at Westminster with folks ranging from mid-40s through late 50s) for an in-depth study of a book of the Bible. Each week the group will read and explore a text from the Psalms. This discussion-style class is facilitated by members of the Flock.

This stirring hymn used at the opening of Riverside Church in New York in 1930 was penned by its widely-known and influential pastor, and it has gained a firm place in English-language hymnals around the world. The Welsh tune name honors the Rhondda Valley in Glamorganshire.

Psalms 111 and 112 are appropriately brought together in this paraphrase. Both form acrostics: each poetic line begins with a letter of the Hebrew alphabet in order. In addition, both psalms begin with "hallelujah," and they share much vocabulary as well as a theme of praise.

This morning hymn is based on a Latin text attributed to a 4th-century bishop. It weaves various images of Christ as Light with light-based descriptions of each day's passing. It is set to a dance-like tune from at least the 15th century that enhances the energy in the text.
