

Fourth Sunday of Easter
Confirmation Sunday
Preparation for Worship

Even here, even now, in these shadowlands where death presumes to reign, let our lives be lived in counterclaim.

Even in the manner of our dying let us give good witness to the hope your triumph brings.

WORSHIP NOTES

NURSERY

Childcare is available for infants through 4K. Our nurturing staff of experienced caregivers and parent volunteers offers a welcoming environment for children. The Nursery is located on the mezzanine level. The entrance is at Westminster Drive, at the columbarium or near the Westminster Weekday School offices. The Family Lounge, located down the stairs from the front office and straight down the hallway on the right, is available for any child caregiver and includes worship livestream, comfortable seating, and a changing table.

WORSHIP BAGS

Each Sunday we offer worship bags in the Atrium for children. The worship bags are designed to include reusable items that engage children in open ended play during worship. While children attend worship with their families, they can participate in worship and play to make meaning in faith. Please return the zipper bag and its contents each Sunday.

Texts for vocal solos and choral music may be found online by scanning this QR code.

CHILDREN'S CHURCH

Children's Church is worship education for children in Kindergarten and 1st grade. Children leave worship with a pastor to continue worship and age-appropriate exploration and play. Parent volunteers supervise activities and play after a pastor leads the lesson. You can sign up to volunteer with Children's Church here: (<https://signup.com/go/SPYMEVv>). Children's Church will not meet on May 25, due to the holiday.

SPRING BBQ LUNCHEON

On Sunday, May 18, everyone is invited to enjoy good food and fellowship at the spring all-church luncheon. Henry's BBQ and sides will be served in the Fellowship Hall immediately following 10a worship. $13/adult; $9/child; $45/family max. The Connect, Serve, Grow Task Force will provide a brief update during lunch. Reserve your place online.

MOTHER'S DAY OFFERING

Celebrating Mother's Day with a gift to Presbyterian Communities of SC is a long standing tradition for SC Presbyterian churches. PCSC consists of six retirement facilities located throughout the state. The offering benefits residents who need financial assistance during their last years. Envelopes for this annual offering are located in the Ritual of Friendship folders. Make checks payable to WPC and designate them for PCSC. For information about PCSC, go to www.prescommunities.org.

The book includes material about the Cherokee Nation, Scots Irish Presbyterians, South Carolina colonial history, and much more. Taylor, a retired Presbyterian minister and a Greenville native with upcountry roots going back many generations, has studied this history over many years. It will be an interesting and educational presentation. All are invited to attend this special program.

VOLUME LXXVIII | May 11, 2025 | No. 5

From the Pews, Scott & Susan Clark

To the Confirmands (and everyone else) –

There was a segment from a podcast shared on our family unit's text thread recently where the narrator described life as being like a puzzle. For this puzzle, you have all the pieces on the table in front of you, but the puzzle box has no picture on it. It's up to you to figure out how all the pieces fit together and what your picture is going to look like.

There are a few other things that make this life puzzle different from an ordinary puzzle. There are more pieces on the table than you can use, and all the pieces don't fit with all the other pieces.

Completing such a puzzle sounds like a confusing and difficult task. And indeed, you will find that assembling your life's puzzle is a confusing and difficult task.

First off, you need to develop a strategy to complete such a task. To start, you should get the pieces that you think are the most important assembled first then build the other stuff around them. Sounds easy enough but identifying what is important is harder than it sounds. What is important in your thoughts may not be what is actually portrayed as important in your actions. Take note, the closer those two things are – your thoughts and your actions – the better.

Secondly, the rules of this puzzle provide that there are more pieces available than you can use. That is, there are pieces on the table that you may not want or need. Choose carefully what pieces you add to your life's puzzle. Because as was stated above, not all pieces fit with every other piece. Pick those pieces that fit best with those ones you originally identified as being the most important.

Next, and read carefully because this is important and it may not have been apparent to you when the puzzle pieces were first laid out for you, but this puzzle has no edge pieces. For most people, this is where they would want to start assembling an ordinary puzzle – establishing the boundaries. It's good strategy for an ordinary puzzle but that's not how life works. This life puzzle has the capability of growing in limitless directions – based on the choices you make and the circumstances that are cast upon you. Your life can change directions at any time based on what you choose to do or what you have to do. You don't know where this life is going to take you. The ragged edges of the puzzle that you have constructed will provide you with opportunities and obligations. The opportunity to continue to grow personally and spiritually. The opportunity to connect with others – be they friends, neighbors or spouses. The obligation to do the things you have to do in pursuit of those opportunities and to get what you want out of your life.

Finally, there's one other thing that is key to the assembly of life's puzzle and often it is the hardest thing. Patience. Life's puzzle pieces are likely not going to come together on your preferred timeline or in the order you want. In the gap between what we want and when we want it lives faith.

Have faith that the life you want to assemble will happen. Have faith that you have available the necessary pieces to assemble your life. Have faith that your family, friends, and church family will support you in your journey of assembling your life.

Written as a meditation on Lamentations 3:22–23, this text is one of the few hymns among the 1200 poems by this Methodist writer and pastor that has gained much currency. The tune that appears here was composed especially for these words, and the pairing has proved enduring.

Few Welsh hymns are as well known or loved as this 18th-century text that did not gain its popular tune until the early 20th century. In both its original text and in English translation, it is a stirring hymn of pilgrimage filled with vivid imagery from Hebrew Scripture.
