

THE ORDER OF WORSHIP

Sunday, July 8, 2018
10:00 a.m.

Seventh Sunday After Pentecost

THE PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

In this place where Your Name, O God, is above every name, where Your truth is sought and Your faith cherished, grant Your blessing upon all who worship You in sincerity and truth. Here may the weary find rest; the lonely, friendship; the saddened, comfort; the fearful, courage; the discouraged, hope; the weak, strength; the strong, discipline; and all of us the reassurance of Your forgiving and empowering mercy, and the desire and opportunity to invest our lives for the good of all people and the glory of God.

If you had never seen a beach or glass or even a sandcastle, could you ever imagine the potential in a single grain of sand? Yet look what happens when something almost too small to see joins together with so many others.

Isn't that also how it goes for us?

Here we sit in a consumer-driven culture where we all chase after individual ideas of perfection. What toll is that taking on the power of community? When we dismiss any opinion that differs from our own; when we choose not to work through conflict; when we become defensive toward any criticism - I fear that we end up isolated both from each other and from our God-given potential.

When the book of Matthew says in Chapter 5, "If anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to them the other cheek also. And if anyone wants to sue you and take your shirt, hand over your coat as well. If anyone forces you to go one mile, go with them two miles. Give to the one who asks you, and do not turn away from the one who wants to borrow from you," is it not saying that life is about something far greater than you alone?

Give. Love. Share. Forgive. Not just when it's easy, but more importantly, when it's hard. God needs us to come together regardless of race, religion, or politics. He needs us to humbly and compassionately focus on what we have in common. Our I must grow to a we. Our us must encompass them so that when a cry goes out for hunger, it is our cry. When an injustice occurs, the pain is ours. Isn't that what propels us to action? Through our inclusiveness, God feeds. He heals. He fights. He loves, and He renews our spirits so that we can go out and love some more. Show me a transformation more beautiful, more powerful than that.
