THE ORDER OF WORSHIP

Sunday, September 9, 2018
11:15 a.m.

Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

THE PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

O loving God, to turn away from you is to fall, to turn toward you is to rise, and to stand before you is to abide forever. Grant us, dear God, in all our duties your help; in all our uncertainties your guidance; in all our dangers your protection; and in all our sorrows your peace, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OUR APPROACH TO GOD

RITUAL OF FRIENDSHIP, COMMON CONCERNS OF THE CHURCH

CHORAL INTROIT “Surely” Langston

CALL TO WORSHIP (Psalm 130:5,7)

Leader: I wait for the Lord, my soul waits, and in his word I hope.

People: For with the Lord there is steadfast love, and with him is great power to redeem.

Leader: Let us worship God!

* HYMN OF PRAISE No. 35 LOBE DEN HERREN
“Praise Ye the Lord, the Almighty”

* PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Good and gracious God, we confess that we have been more fearful than faithful. Our vision has been dim, our imagination has been shallow, and our love has left many out. Forgive us, Holy God, and renew our hearts again. Help us to see others not as the world sees them, but as you see them. Mold us once again into the image of your Son, so that we would be extravagant with his grace and courageous with his call. In the name of Jesus Christ, we pray. Amen.

* ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Leader: Friends, believe the good news of the gospel.

People: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

* GLORIA PATRI (Hymnal, No. 581)

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, Amen.

THE LIFE OF THE CHURCH

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

HOPE, LOVE, STRENGTH AND COURAGE

"I hereby command you: Be strong and courageous; do not be frightened or dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."
Joshua 1:9

In the early 1960s an uncle of mine was the manager of a motel in Memphis. This was at the height of the Civil Rights movement when Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was a beacon of love and hope in a dangerous and uncertain time.

In the summer of 1962, my uncle opened the doors of his motel to Dr. King and members of the Commission on Civil Rights and the Tennessee Advisory Council to the CCR. My uncle, aunt and cousins actually met Dr. King. For that display of hospitality and tolerance, my uncle and his family had to be taken away when the KKK and other civil rights opponents threatened to burn it down. Eventually, he was transferred to a job in another city then fired. His family's life was upended and changed irrevocably because my uncle felt he had to do what was right.

When we consider the harrowing moments our country has experienced the past two years, it's well to look at similar times in history to examine what others did in such circumstances. We could look all the way back to before the formal establishment of the church when Christians were hunted, executed and even set on fire as torches at the Coliseum in Rome.

Despite knowing that the authorities were looking for them, early Christians continued to practice the faith, spreading hope and love through the Word even at – literally – the risk of life and limb. That's what Paul and his followers did in cities throughout the Mediterranean.

"There they strengthened the souls of the disciples and encouraged them to continue in the faith, saying, 'It is through many persecutions that we must enter the kingdom of God.'"
Acts 14:22

We also can look to those brave souls in occupied Europe during WWII who helped Jews escape persecution at the hands of the Nazis. Those citizens risked everything to do what was right.

So the question we face is how to find that moral courage, how do we find hope?

"But you, take courage! Do not let your hands be weak, for your work shall be rewarded."
2 Chronicles 15:7

"I have said this to you, so that in me you may have peace. In the world you face persecution. But take courage; I have conquered the world!"
John 16:33

Jesus' resurrection, God's ultimate victory, is the example to remember when moral choices must be made. Do we take the path of least resistance? Or do we find the courage to stand up and be counted? God gave us the freedom to choose but he also gave us hope and the light to find our way.

Grab a Nametag this Sunday!

On the recommendation of Session and the Pastoral Nominating Committee, we ask that you wear nametags during worship and the fellowship hour. This will help make the process of learning names and faces easier for our new Senior Pastor Ben Dorr and his wife Heather when they join us in worship. And you may finally learn the name of that one person you've been too embarrassed to ask!

You will find nametags in the following places:

- Sanctuary Atrium in several spots
- Friendship Court – outside the choir room
- Entrance Pavilion – near the Fellowship Hall entrance
- Starting this Sunday, September 9, in the Adult Sunday School classes

Write your name in large print and legibly!

Thanks for your help!

ADULT EDUCATION OPPORTUNITIES

We at Westminster believe that education is essential for discipleship, and hope that what you learn in this place will transform your living beyond our doors. Each quarter we offer four classes, covering topics that range from theology and Biblical literacy to culture. This quarter kicks off on Sunday, September 9, and will run each Sunday through October 28. You are welcome to join any class at any point!

1. Confirmation for Adults

This class will study the same curriculum our 9th grade confirmation students study each spring. It would be a great experience for parents whose children will go through confirmation anytime in the next few years, but we welcome adults of any stage to refresh their faith by remembering what it means to belong to God and to be Presbyterian!

Teacher: Mary Kathleen Duncan, is an Associate Pastor at Westminster whose work focuses on the education and spiritual upbringing of youth and their families.

Room: 209

2. Wisdom Calls

This class will study the Wisdom Literature of the Old Testament (the books of Proverbs, Job, and Ecclesiastes and the Apocryphal books of Sirach and Wisdom of Solomon). In addition to exploring the texts of the books, we will try to apply their lessons to contemporary life using a recent book by Paul Lewis, Wisdom Calls: The Moral Story of the Hebrew Bible (available in the WPC library).

Teacher: David Rutledge, a scholar of religion, is a member of Westminster, who recently retired from Furman University after years of teaching.

Room: 213

3. What the Bible Doesn't Say

Where are all the windows God is opening after closing the door? Or the sins we hate that don't reflect back on the sinner? Did God "say it" so we have to believe it, and does God prefer to help only those who are getting after their own good? This lecture-based class will examine the cultural sayings that have settled into our religious vocabulary. We'll ask what we can learn from popular religion and where we might diverge in our own faithfulness.

Teacher: Leigh Stuckey, is an Associate Pastor at Westminster who works in education, communication, and mission.

Room: 211

4. Visionaries, Idealists, and Creative Geniuses

What do we know about inspiration? What is a vision? How is relativity inspired? Join this discussion-based class as we explore the creative spark that lies within us all.

Teacher: Judith Chandler, a member of Westminster, has taught at Furman's Lifelong Learning Institute since its inception. She is also a recognized local artist.

Room: 210

Sunday School for children and youth will begin on Sunday, September 9, at 10:00 a.m., and classes will be combined differently this year. 2K will meet in Room 108, on our lowest floor, 3K and 4K will meet together in Room 109. 5K and 1st grade will meet together in Room 123. Grades 2 and 3 will meet together in Room 120. Grades 4 and 5 will meet together in Room 118.

Grades 6, 7, and 8 will meet together as a class in the 300 hallway and Grades 9-12 will meet in the Youth Suite.
