GOOGLE, GOD, AND THE WISDOM OF CHILDREN

In 2008, I was asked to write a stewardship-themed Harbinger cover. Based on the amount of feedback I received from church members and staff, I can only assume that my words resonated with others and that this particular cover is the most impactful one I've ever written for Westminster. Therefore, when Kathleen Reynolds asked me to write another stewardship-themed cover for this year, I was honored but quickly became stressed. What in the world should I write about? How can anything I write come close to being as meaningful as that cover from 10 years ago?

I started by Googling the phrase "I'm in" since it is this year's stewardship theme. Some of the definitions I found are as follows:

- Count me in.
- I agree with the idea.
- Include me.
- I will join you in your efforts.

I like that last one a lot. "I'm in" frequently is used as an answer for mundane, easy things like, "Who wants to order pizza for dinner?" However, saying "I'm in" as it relates to Westminster entails quite a bit more than committing to sitting in a pew for one hour each week. Our God is a God who calls us to action. By joining the church, members do not merely promise to attend worship each week and to consider sermons for personal reflection and growth, but also to support the church's numerous outreach efforts. We cannot live out our faith by simply being on a membership roll. Our faith should foster a sense of urgency in each of us. We should want to give and to change ourselves so we can then change the world around us. Often, we must take the hard road and commit to being stretched in different ways.

After Googling, I decided to ask my kids why our family can say that we're "in" with the goings-on at Westminster, what they enjoy most, and why it's important to belong and give to our church. Their answers, listed below, were enlightening.

"God is special and I enjoy being in his house several times every week."

"Our church gives us opportunities to help others."

"I love choir because I get to sing about God and to God."

Well, then. Leave it to a seven- and a ten-year-old to best explain why our church is important and why we should support it financially. First, our church isn't just beautiful, colorful, and fun. Our church is a holy place that brings comfort to even the youngest who step inside its doors. Second, and as the last Google definition above states, our church invites us to join in God's work and the efforts to improve our community that take place outside of our walls. And, lastly, our relationship with God doesn't come about through passive worship but by how we choose to praise him and participate in sharing the message of his word, love, and forgiveness.

As I wrote on a Harbinger cover 10 years ago, my family supports our church because Westminster is a place that strives to be a movement and not simply a monument. In these turbulent times in which we live, I hope you will join me in saying "I'm in" and make a pledge so that the good work of Westminster can continue to challenge its members and bring about God's Kingdom to those around us.

Amanda Warren

ADULT EDUCATION OPPORTUNITIES

We at Westminster believe that education is essential for discipleship, and hope that what you learn in this place will transform your living beyond our doors. Each quarter we offer classes covering topics that range from theology and Biblical literacy to culture. This quarter kicks off on Sunday, November 4, and will run each Sunday through December 16. There will be one combined Adult Class on Sunday, November 25. Classes will not meet on December 23 and 30. You are welcome to join any class at any point!

1. What's the Difference: How does being a Presbyterian compare with other religions?

In this six week class, we will look at the difference between Presbyterians and Mormons, Christian Scientists, Jehovah's Witnesses, Scientologists, and Unitarian Universalists.

Teacher: Barbara Stoop, an Associate Pastor at WPC.

Room: 211

2. Table Talk for Moms with Young Children

Raising children is hard work. The image of Mother that we have filed away in our head—selfless, always caring and available—is hard to live up to. This Biblically based discussion class will explore what it means to be a Mom- and maintain your sanity.

Teacher: Cara Puntch, a certified educator with experience in classrooms and at the Greenville School District, is the director of the Westminster Weekday School and a mother of three.

Room: 212

3. Being Christian

What does it look like to live as a Christian? How can we follow Jesus and grow into our faith? This class will explore the call to discipleship as a lived reality. We will cover forgiveness, holiness, faith in the public square, and much more.

Teacher: Leigh Stuckey, an Associate Pastor at WPC.

Room: 209

4. Visionaries, Idealists, and Creative Geniuses (running through Nov 11)

What do we know about inspiration? What is a vision? How is relativity inspired? Join this discussion-based class as we explore the creative spark that lies within us all.

Teacher: Judith Chandler, a member of Westminster, has taught at Furman's Lifelong Learning Institute since its inception. She is also a recognized local artist.

Room: 210

5. Wisdom Calls (running through Nov 11)

This class will study the Wisdom Literature of the Old Testament (the books of Proverbs, Job, and Ecclesiastes and the Apocryphal books of Sirach and Wisdom of Solomon). In addition to exploring the texts of the books, we will try to apply their lessons to contemporary life using a recent book by Paul Lewis, Wisdom Calls: The Moral Story of the Hebrew Bible.

Teacher: David Rutledge, a scholar of religion, is a member of Westminster, recently retired from Furman University after years of teaching.

Room: 213

6. Characters of Christmas (December 9 and 16)
