IHN DECEMBER 9 – 16

It's the final IHN (formerly known as GAIHN) week of 2018! The holidays are a wonderful time to celebrate and show our gratitude by helping WPC provide a safe and warm space for up to three families who are experiencing homelessness. We are looking for volunteers to act as hosts or provide dinner to our guests during the week of December 9-16. You can sign up at <https://bit.ly/2JXLtBr> or in person this Sunday in the Sanctuary Atrium. If you have any additional questions or want to learn more, please contact Holly Vanderwal at hollyv04@hotmail.com.

IHN (GAIHN) needs your help and donations. Imagine that you are a child in temporary housing and your suitcase is a garbage bag. Imagine your lunch pail is a used grocery bag. Imagine not having a backpack to carry school books. Please consider donating small suitcases, gym bags, backpacks or lunch pails so these sweet children we host may feel just a little bit better each day. We thank you!

WESTMINSTER BOOK CLUB

Because of a scheduling conflict, Westminster's Book Club will wait until Tuesday, February 5, to discuss the book Swing Time by Zadie Smith. We meet from 7:00 – 8:00 pm, in the church library. New people are always welcome!

PLACES THAT BELONG TO YOU

So now that Thanksgiving ended (what...a few hours ago?), the Christmas shopping season can officially begin. But what do you give a person who has everything? Hmm...that is a toughie. I've got it – a tie! No, that's so overdone. How about a spa gift certificate? Fun, but seems unoriginal. Maybe a matching scarf/mittens combo? Oh, never mind.

I'm embarrassed to admit it, but there is someone very special to me whom I often leave off my list. He doesn't need anything and has given me more than I could measure. It's funny, but in this instance, I know exactly what I should give. I just don't always want to give it. It costs a lot. Really. No, I mean it. It doesn't get more expensive than this – even though the cost isn't in dollars.

God asks for me (and you) to act justly, love mercy, and to walk humbly with him. He spells it out right there in the Old Testament. I'm certain it's in your Bible too. Look up Micah chapter six, verse eight. Read it for yourself. I'll wait. Now, you see what I mean? It sure is a doozy. So, what to do about all of this?

For starters, don't panic. God would never ask more of us than we are capable of doing, with his help. It doesn't mean it'll be easy. But overall – we got this! Secondly, God knows that we are fallible and that we mess up sometimes. That's kind of the whole point of God's sending his only begotten Son for us. Remember, Christmas is the celebration of Christ's birth. But we have to open ourselves up and embrace him. We wouldn't need him if we were perfect.

God wants us to give beyond money and even our time. He wants our thoughts, our intentions, our dreams, and our secrets. He wants every nook and cranny of our very being. Our souls should have no rooms that God cannot enter. And when he's entered so fully into our lives, it is so much easier to give him what he truly desires for Christmas and all year through: us.

*Heavenly Father,
Focus our eyes and our hearts
To greet faces in song.
May the bright ease the dark
In the places that belong to you.*
