

WESTMINSTER PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

THE ORDER OF WORSHIP

Sunday, March 24, 2019

9:00 and 11:15 a.m.

Third Sunday in Lent

PRAYER OF PREPARATION

Everlasting God, in whom we live and move and have our being: you have made us for yourself, so that our hearts are restless until they rest in you. Give us purity of heart and strength of purpose, that no selfish passion may hinder us from knowing your will, and no weakness keep us from doing it. In your light may we see light, and in your service find perfect freedom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

People: I have looked upon you in the sanctuary, beholding your power and glory.

Good and gracious God, we come before you in humility and penitence. We have spent our energy on vain pursuits, we have spent our money on superficial stuff, and we have spent our love on fruitless desires. Our lives have not been a reflection of Christ's love for the world. Forgive us, Holy One, and renew a right spirit within us. Help us to refocus our vision and reshape our lives. Give us the courage to work for justice, the persistence to pursue peace, and the compassion to include all people in our hearts and in our homes. We ask it in the name of Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.

* ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Leader: Friends, believe the good news of the gospel.

People: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

In this week's Bible verse, Jesus speaks of unexpected tragedy and loss, and the urgency we should feel because we are not promised tomorrow. Some of you know of the tragic death of my parents in a car accident. And although that event greatly impacted my life, I want to speak to a different event with a positive outcome that God used to change my perspective.

When my husband, Freddie, was diagnosed with a rare cancer at 35 years old, our world was shaken. It was a powerful reminder that we are not in control. Suddenly, material possessions lost their importance - life is not about all of the things we can acquire, but about the kind of impact we can make while we are here on Earth. I don't feel the same level of entitlement and naiveté that I once had. I now understand that my presence in this world is not about me at all. It's about how God can use me to do his work. I'm still human and am not perfect by any means, but I make an effort each day to be a little better than the day before. Now, I focus on gratitude for what I have instead of fixating on what I don't have.

After Jesus discusses unexpected tragedy, he uses a parable about a fig tree to warn us against false reassurance. I may have been a cultivated tree before Freddie's cancer diagnosis, but was I "bearing fruit" to my fullest potential? Just because we are a tree that has not been cut down, we cannot presume that we are producing all of the fruit that we are capable of. We must continually challenge ourselves. Are we finding ways to make the world around us better each day? Are we a cultivated, yet unproductive tree or are we a tree that is bearing fruit and using all of our spiritual gifts to the fullest every day? Although God shows us patience and mercy, He still expects us to use our gifts to help others.

As we go about our week, I challenge each of us to consider our mindset and the choices we'd make if we knew this week were our last. What a dynamic impact we could make in our community if all of us felt the urgency to be as fruitful as possible and acted upon it.

Tiffany Williams
