THE ORDER OF WORSHIP

Sunday, January 13, 2019
9:00 and 11:15 a.m.

Baptism of the Lord

PRAYER OF PREPARATION

Eternal God, at the baptism of Jesus in the river Jordan, you proclaimed him your beloved Son. Grant that all who are baptized in his name may respond faithfully to the covenant that you have made with us, so that we would never turn from the world, but would reach out into the world with Christ's love, justice, and grace. Amen.

Merciful God, in baptism you promise forgiveness and new life, making us part of the body of Christ. We confess that we remain preoccupied with ourselves, separated from one another. We cling to destructive habits, hold grudges, and show reluctance to welcome the stranger. We allow the past to hold us hostage. In your loving kindness, have mercy on us, and free us from sin. Raise us once again to new life, so that we may live together in grace and share Christ's peace with the world. Amen.

* ASSURANCE OF PARDON
Leader: Friends, believe the good news of the gospel.
People: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

*But now, this is what the Lord says—
 he who created you, Jacob,
 he who formed you, Israel:
 Do not fear, for I have redeemed you;
 I have summoned you by name; you are mine.
 When you pass through the waters,
 I will be with you;
 and when you pass through the rivers,
 they will not sweep over you.
 When you walk through the fire,
 you will not be burned;
 the flames will not set you ablaze.
 For I am the Lord your God,
 the Holy One of Israel, your Savior;
 I give Egypt for your ransom,
 Cush and Seba in your stead.
 Since you are precious and honored in my sight,
 and because I love you...*
 Isaiah 43:1-4

"Since you are precious and honored in my sight, and because I love you"... wow that is a pretty profound statement and probably hard for us to comprehend at times. How we born sinners could be honored and loved so deeply by God.

As I've studied this scripture and how it relates to baptism, it made me realize that from the moment we were conceived we were baptized in God's love with no expectations.

I've seen different expressions of baptism having grown up in different faith churches I have attended with family. The significant meaning is a child or adult being welcomed by us Christians and acknowledging that we each are surrounded by God's love and will continue to support and love one another. Even in its simplest form of expression, the meaning is the same.

The entire scripture of Isaiah 43:1-7 shines a light of hope around elements of adversity. With the significance of using water in baptism, it is important to know that from the very beginning of our lives God's promise surrounds us with his SEA of perfect love.

ADULT EDUCATION OPPORTUNITIES

We at Westminster believe that education is essential for discipleship, and hope that what you learn in this place will transform your living beyond our doors. Our “January Term,” taught this year by members of Westminster, kicked off last Sunday, January 6, and will run each Sunday through January 27.

1. A Medieval Primer: Saints, purgatory, piety and the legacy of a different world

This class provides a brief historical overview of Christian beliefs and practices during the Middle Ages (c. 500-c. 1500). Some of the major topics include: saints’ relics and pilgrimages, the doctrine of purgatory, monks and monasticism, and late medieval daily piety. This lecture-based class places religious trends in their social and cultural contexts and thus focuses more on the beliefs of regular people than on scholastic debates of highly-educated theologians.

Teacher: Caroline Clark is an Associate Professor at Clemson University specializing in the medieval period in Europe with a particular focus on women’s roles and social networks in medieval England.

Room: 209

2. The Gospel Stories: Why Four Points of View?

Based on Steven L. Bridges’s book, Getting the Gospels: Understanding the New Testament Accounts of Jesus’ Life, we will learn together what these four stories can teach us about Jesus’ life and our mission.

Teacher: Judith Chandler, a member of Westminster, has taught at Furman’s Lifelong Learning Institute since its inception. She is also a recognized local artist.

Room: 210

3. The Flock: Sabbath

This discussion-based class, geared primarily toward folks in their 40s and 50s, will focus on the concept of “Sabbath” as laid out by popular author and theologian Walter Brueggemann in Sabbath as Resistance. Participants will explore our 24/7 society of consumption, a society in which we live to achieve, accomplish, perform, and possess, and ask how we can begin to focus on a restored relationship with God and our community.

Teachers: Ben Alexander, Christa Likes, LeAnne White are each active in various ministries of Westminster. Ben has served on the Weekday School Committee. Christa has served on the Membership Committee. LeAnne is Moderator Elect for Presbyterian Women.

Room: 211

4. Playing the Back Nine: Aging in the Modern World

The class will explore issues relevant to aging: navigating healthcare, care giving, spirituality, and theories about age.

Teacher: Jim Davis is a M.D. specializing in geriatric health at Greenville Health System and Assistant Professor at The School of Medicine. He will be aided by Parish Associate Amos Workman.

Room: 213
