

REFORMATION SUNDAY

Preparation for Worship

We pray to you, O God: be our helper and protector.
 Save the afflicted, have mercy on the lowly,
 raise up the fallen, help the needy, humble the proud,
 return the lost, feed the hungry,
 release the captive, heal the sick,
 revive the weak, and comfort those in fear.
 And help us to love the world as you so love the world. Amen.

Call to Worship from Psalm 133

How very good and pleasant it is when kindred live together in unity!
 It is like the dew of Hermon,
 which falls on the mountains of Zion.
 For there the Lord ordained his blessing,
 life forevermore.
 Let us worship God!

Hymn #370 This Is My Father's World TERRA BEATA

Prayer of Confession & Assurance of Pardon
 Almighty God, you know us better than we know ourselves.
 Search our hearts and minds this morning,
 so that we would see our lives in light that is clear and honest and full of your grace.
 Forgive us for all that we have done that was selfish.
 We have failed to see the ways that we ignore violence,
 shrug at poverty, and wrap ourselves in self-centered worries.
 Give us eyes to see the greater good to which you call us.
 Grant us the courage we need to give ourselves for our community.
 Make us new people, through whom the love, justice,
 and hope of Jesus Christ will spread abundantly. Amen.

 Anthem I Believe in the Sun

arr. Miller

*I believe in the sun, even when it's not shining.
 I believe in love, even when I don't feel it.
 I believe in God, even when God is silent.*

Responding to God's Word

Affirmation of Faith, The Apostles' Creed
 I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord;
 who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
 born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell;
 the third day he rose again from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
 from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Ghost;
 the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints;
 the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body;
 and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of Thanksgiving and Intercession

The Lord's Prayer
 Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
 thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
 and the glory forever.

WESTMINSTER BOOK CLUB

The Westminster Book Club will meet in the Green lot on Tuesday, November 3 at 6pm (NEW TIME: to be able to be done before it gets dark!). In case of rain, we will hold the session on GoToMeeting. Send Ellen Stevenson an email (ellens7377@gmail.com) if you want the log in information to join the meeting.

This month, Kathryn Algary will lead our discussion of The Yellow House: A Memoir by Sarah Broom. A brilliant, haunting and unforgettable memoir from a stunning new talent about the inexorable pull of home and family, set in a shotgun house in New Orleans East beginning in 1961.

Please join us - new people are always welcome.

TOGETHER: INTRODUCING THE PLEDGE THRU
FOR COMMITMENT SUNDAY

This year Commitment Sunday will feature donuts and coffee under Westminster's own "golden arches" – The Niven Memorial Bell Tower. For generations members of Westminster have brought their pledges forward on Commitment Sunday as a public act of faithfulness. When we pledge we commit the fruits of our labor to one another, making our faithfulness known to our families, children, friends, and the gathered congregation. We align ourselves with the vision and values of this congregation, and commit to the ways God is working through us.

This year the bringing of our pledges will look a bit different but carry the same significance. If you are joining us in person, you will have an opportunity to drop your pledge card in baskets as you retire. For those who can't join us or those who wish for another public act of faithfulness, you're invited to participate in our Pledge Thru. From 2-5p on November 8th, drive through our "golden arches" (the Niven Memorial Bell Tower), and greet a pastor with your pledge card.

When you Pledge Thru you will experience the benefits of communal giving and, as a token of our gratitude during this difficult time, a custom WPC mug and (drum roll, please) a donut (COVID precautions honored!).

As always, you are also welcome to pledge online.

We'll see you November 8th!

VOLUME LXXIII | OCTOBER 25, 2020 | No. 24

From the Pews, Keith Stevenson:

Church is about community. It's all about bringing people together. People supporting people. Having friends. Doing good with people that you respect. Trying to implement the things that Jesus taught us; that Jesus showed us how to do; and it is a continuous struggle. It's not easy.

But then a virus showed up that interrupted our standard way of doing things. It interrupted our sense of community and put a halt to many of the ways we connect. Worries and concerns about cross-contamination have driven us apart. For me, this pandemic is a reminder that we have taken things for granted. Hopefully one day we'll look back and recognize what lessons we learned from dealing with this crisis. When we get to that point, we can be thankful for the wisdom that we gained.

We are now finding new ways to come together. Opportunities such as: Prayerful meetings in our grassy parking lot. New ways of worship. Committees to study how we can bring ourselves back together. Clubs meeting virtually. Sunday school using Zoom. Committees reaching out to each other via Go-To-Meeting. Other committees meeting in the green lot. Choir, VBS, and It's Elementary via Zoom.

The pandemic can't keep us apart. It's another challenge that we're facing and it's bringing us together in different ways. Our Habitat for Humanity project continues. Our work at Camp Thornwell continues. Church luncheons, Circle Groups, Confirmation, baptisms, clothing drives, and funerals. Good things that we want to continue can continue in safety in spite of this new challenge.

Our initial response was to avoid small businesses and charities to protect ourselves. For those of us who can, our thoughtful response is to provide continuing support to our favorite charities and our favorite local businesses that need us right now. Our thoughtful response is to reach out to each other in many ways to provide and accept support that we all need daily.

Westminster needs our support now too. Now is the season to renew your promise of support to the church. Your tithe is all important to allow our work to continue.

So be the one to take the initiative. Renew your tithe. Reach out to others during this time. Join a group in the church that brings people together. Create a group in the church that brings people together. And take care of yourselves as you take care of others.
