VOLUME LXXIII | FEBRUARY 7, 2021 | No. 39

From the Pews, Brian Donlan

“Even youths grow tired and weary. Even young men stumble and fall but those who trust in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles, like eagles y’all, like eagles y’all. They will walk and not grow faint.”

Not exactly how Isaiah wrote it, but if you are familiar with the movie “Remember the Titans” then you may recall this scene where these verses, Isaiah 40:30-31, are used as a football team trusts in the Lord to overcome difficulties and renew their strength together. That’s it for the movie commentary. Really, I just liked the idea of introducing the verses with some “y’alls” in it.

The verses, no matter the wording, are something I think most can relate to. At some point in our lives, and likely more than once, most of us will experience weariness. This pandemic alone has offered more than its share of confounding weariness. You may be left asking, “Why me? Why now?” There may be no answer to be found. No reason that makes sense. Yet we still have to move forward, but we can’t do it alone trying to rely on our own inner strength. It is through trust and faith in the Lord. “The Lord is the everlasting God, the creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary. His understanding is unsearchable. He gives power to the faint and strengthens the powerless.” Isaiah 40:28. Regardless of the number of times we’ve denied asking the Lord for strength, He will always be there because he does not grow weary. He is a God of comfort and grace. And so while it is hard at times to see the way out, continuing to trust and turn to the Lord will provide the strength to move forward.

Fifth Sunday after Epiphany

Preparation for Worship

God of Stillness, help us to steady our souls. The uncertainty of the world, transitions, and the pandemic have made our minds and bodies frenetic and disconnected. Grant us the courage to be still that we would become so acquainted with silence that it would not bring anxiety but deep rest. Help us toward a habit of listening closely to our own interior worlds, believing that what stirs in us is worthy to be held and seen. As others insult and demean us or our attempt to make us question our dignity, let us be people capable of traveling into ourselves, and with you let us bear witness to our hopes, fears, and stories, learning to parse out lie from truth, and find our rest in You. Our souls will quiver no more.

Call to Worship

We gather to worship God, whose creative imagination never fails:

For the sake of the Father, we will search for the outcasts.

We gather to praise God, whose steadfast love never weakens:

For the sake of the Son, we will lift up all who have fallen.

We gather to offer our best to God, who walks with us through eternity:

For the sake of the Spirit, we will walk with the weary.

Hymn #53

Prayer of Confession and Assurance of Pardon

Ever-engaging God,

We confess that we forget.

We do not notice. We fail to carve out time and space.

We gloss over.

In this life, sometimes we are so busy that we run past the things you would have us see, missing opportunities to extend grace.

Many times, we are blinded by the blessings and privileges of our stations, causing us to overlook those in deep need.

We do not habitually seek you nor tune our ears to your voice.

Often, our desires for unity and peace rush past acknowledgement, necessary conversations, and reckonings of the heart.

Forgive us. Have mercy on us.

Help us to walk the hard paths with your guidance, and to be made new. Amen.

RESPONDING TO GOD'S WORD

Affirmation of Faith, The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost;
the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body;
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of Thanksgiving and Intercession

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts
as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory forever. Amen.

About Today's Liturgy

In the month of February, we intentionally welcome diverse voices in our written liturgy for Sunday morning worship. This week, the Prayer of Preparation is written by Cole Arthur Riley who is a writer, liturgist, and founder of Black Liturgies.

Returning to In-Person Worship

The Session has approved returning to in-person worship on Sunday, February 14, with one worship service at 11:15a. Our Covid-19 protocols will remain in place, with masks and distanced seating by household. Up to 100 may sign up for a service. Sign up will begin on Monday, February 8. We will continue to provide our recorded worship via our website and social media platforms for our members who need to worship from home.
