VOLUME LXXIII | MARCH 21, 2021 | No. 45A

From the Pews, Kathleen Reynolds

Anyone remember what he or she was doing on March 15, 2020? I remember I was at a baby shower. Covid was all the talk. We only waved at each other with absolutely no hugging. "Safety first," we laughed, even though we were tucked together inside. Months later we would realize how naive that thinking was at the time.

Just then the dreaded 355 number came up on my phone. All Greenville County School District parents know that number, and their stomachs drop when they see it flash up on their phones. It usually brings bad news like snow days for inclement weather or a two-hour delay.

On that afternoon I listened in shock as the principal of my child's elementary school announced that schools would be closed for the next two weeks. Deep breaths. It's only two weeks I told myself with my head between my knees. "We can do this," my friends at the shower reassured each other looking around the room for tribal strength. Only two weeks. It would be fun. Lots of time together. It was a beautiful spring. Before we know it, we'll be back to school and back to life as we know it.

Oh... how wrong we were.

I spent much of that spring praying. Praying to stand up to the mental and emotional load I was bearing. Praying for patience with my children. Praying for the words to help my children understand the confusion that was roiling our world. Praying for guidance as I navigated the ever changing landscape of what was considered safe. Praying for our leaders to keep their heads in order to keep us protected during this unknown time. Praying for my family and friends and those all around the world.

When I reflect on what I expect will be an indelible portion of our lives, I think I prayed more during that beautiful spring than I have in my life. But as a result of the tension between that struggle and the comfort of prayer, I felt closer to God.

In Psalm 18 the writer begins by stating "I love you, O Lord, my strength." I now realize that's really all we need to know. The Psalmist goes on to elaborate on the Lord's support- it is like a rock, a shield. Proclaiming your love for God and calling Her your strength can answer any question you might have and supply help in any problem that comes up. God is our strength. She fights for us. She supports us. Her love will never waiver.

While the last year has felt like an eternity, it has forced me to search more deeply for strength in something outside myself. I could not simply overcome the situation. I could only sit and pray and wait. Oh, so hard alone, but with my Rock I took refuge. "He brought me out into a broad place; he rescued me, because he delighted in me."

Fifth Sunday in Lent

Preparation for Worship

“As brother stands by brother in distress, binding up his wounds and soothing his pain, so let us show our love towards our enemy. There is no deeper distress to be found in the world, no pain more bitter than our enemy’s. Nowhere is service more necessary or more blessed than when we serve our enemies.”

Dietrich Bonhoeffer

Gathering and Preparing for God’s Word

Prelude “Great Is Thy Faithfulness” arr. Schrader

Welcome and Announcements

Leader: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

People: And also with you.

Call to Worship from Psalms 66 & 67

Make a joyful noise to God, all the earth;

sing the glory of God’s name; give to God glorious praise.

Let the peoples praise you, O God;

let all the peoples praise you.

Let the nations be glad and sing for joy,

for you judge the peoples with equity and guide the nations upon earth.

Let us worship God!

Hymn #365

Prayer of Confession and Assurance of Pardon

Gracious and holy God, forgive us for letting our lives
drift in dangerous directions.
We have prioritized self-righteousness
ahead of relationships.
We have considered our own care and comfort first.
We have refused to examine ourselves with honest eyes, but have redoubled our efforts to take the speck out of our neighbor's eye.
In your loving-kindness,
grant us a new way to walk in the world.
We ask for the perseverance to pray for all people,
the courage to mend conflicted relationships,
and the faith that you are working to reconcile all things to yourself.
In the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord, we pray. Amen.

Responding to God's Word

Affirmation of Faith, The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost;
the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body;
and the life everlasting. Amen.
