THE GREATER GOOD

Few will recall the name Dolores Hart.

Born in 1938, she was a successful actress in the late 1950s and early 1960s. Her film debut was opposite Elvis Presley in “Loving You.” After that, Dolores made 10 films in five years including “King Creole” and “Where the Boys Are.” She also acted on Broadway, garnering a Tony Award nomination for “The Pleasure of His Company.”

Dolores also fell in love, became engaged and planned her wedding. By all material accounts, she had it all: fame, fortune and love.

So what happened to Dolores Hart?

To help answer that question, read Acts 4:32-35.

“Now the whole group of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one claimed private ownership of any possessions, but everything they owned was held in common. With great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. There was not a needy person among them, for as many as owned lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold. They laid it at the apostles’ feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need.”

Believing in Christ, the apostles knew “the greater good” was served in following God’s son on his journey of teaching and salvation. Imagine if someone came up and asked you to leave your family, sell your possessions and follow a young, scruffy-looking teacher? Mildly put, it would be a challenge to say yes.

Life’s journey sometimes comes down to a fork in the road: One path is safe, the other is a mystery.

So what happened to Dolores Hart? At the height of her success in 1963, Dolores saw “the greater good” – the fork in the road – and realized her true calling was not from the material world but from the Living God. She entered the Abbey of Regina Laudis in Bethlehem, Conn., and became a nun. Sister Dolores eventually became Mother Prioress leading others in a monastic life. Her story is documented in the 2012 film “God is the Bigger Elvis.”

Can all of us become a Dolores Hart? Not likely, but one of the many wonders of the Holy Spirit is that all gifts in Christ’s name are for the greater good. If it’s not committing your entire life to the ministry, maybe it’s tithing, teaching Sunday school or volunteering. Small or large, these spiritual pledges light the path to the greater good.

Second Sunday of Easter

Preparation for Worship

Living God, for whom no door is closed, no heart is locked, breathe on us with your abundant life, that we may have courage to believe that we may be raised with you. Open the eyes of our faith that we may see you in your redeeming work. This we ask through Christ our Savior who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Prelude

“Fairest Lord Jesus”

arr. Forrest

Welcome and Announcements

Leader: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

People: And also with you.

Call to Worship

Leader: We gather here in your presence, God, in our need,
and bringing with us the needs of the world.

People: We come to you, for you come to us in Jesus, and you know by experience what human life is like.

Leader: We come as we are, because you invite us to come,
and you have promised to never turn us away.

People: We come with our faith and with our doubts;
we come with our hopes and our fears.

All: Let us worship God!

Hymn #251

“Christ Has Arisen, Alleluia”

MFURAHINI, HALELUYA

Prayer of Confession and Assurance of Pardon

Lord Jesus, through the power of the Holy spirit we have been raised from the waters of baptism to share in your glorious resurrection. Yet we have not lived as Easter people.
We are unsure of your promise, confused about your will,
and afraid in the face of uncertainty.
Forgive us and guide us back into your presence,
that we may know the fullness of joy.
Whenever we are tempted to fear death,
give us courage to confess your Easter victory.
Whenever we are distracted by petty conflicts,
keep our minds on your reconciling love.
Whenever we are overwhelmed by the power of evil, reveal again to us your triumph over the destructive powers of oppression.
Forgive our sin and let our lives be a testimony to your salvation through the love of God and by the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Responding to God's Word

Affirmation of Faith, The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost;
the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body;
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of Thanksgiving and Intercession

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
