HARBINGER

open minds open hearts

VOLUME LXXIII | APRIL 18, 2021 | No. 49B

From the Pews, Elizabeth Timmons

When I first got the scripture for this Harbinger cover, I thought, “Ok, I’ll write about modern day miracles.” Which I do think is part of this story, but I think there is more to this story than meets the eye, initially.

A couple of days before this Harbinger was due, I treated a patient who loves and serves the Lord so very well. I told her I needed to write a devotional on the text of Jesus, through the disciples, performing a miracle, and it led to a beautiful, Godly discussion about this text.

The first point is that God used the disciples to facilitate this miracle of healing. God performed the miracle, but through the disciples. Thus, God can perform miracles through you and I. God could’ve performed this miracle without the disciples, but this story shows us that we are ambassadors for Christ and because of our sharing of God’s love, have the ability to bring others to him.

Secondly, I think it is really interesting that this beggar clearly had physical needs, but I think the disciples saw his spiritual needs more. They saw past his physical appearance, to the needs of his heart. In healing him physically, the man was healed spiritually. Also, because of his miraculous healing, he was a visible sign to others of just what Christ can do in our lives.

Lastly, I think the timing of this story is important to take into account. We don’t know exactly how long the beggar sat outside and begged for money and goods, but I get the impression it’s been years, as the others in the city knew and recognized this man once he was healed. That being said, this miracle could’ve been performed long ago, but it was performed at the perfect time — God’s time. Maybe the man wouldn’t have been ready to accept Jesus into his life if it weren’t at this precise time.

I think back to the beautiful, Christ-filled conversation this story led to with my patient and even though I may not have been performing a miracle in the name of Jesus, I think it’s neat that I was helping this patient physically, considering the text. I think we are all called to be “liaisons” for Christ, much like the disciples in this story.

Preparation for Worship

“And when Jesus comes along saying that the greatest command of all is to love God and to love our neighbor, he too is asking us to pay attention. If we are to love God, we must first stop, look, and listen for him in what is happening around us and inside us. If we are to love our neighbors, before doing anything else we must see our neighbors. With our imagination as well as our eyes...we must see not just their faces, but the life behind and within their faces. Here it is love that is the frame we see them in.”

Frederick Buechner

* Prayer of Confession

Good and gracious God, we have been fooled
by familiar refrains and tired habits.
We look out at the world and see what we want to see,
closing our eyes to your revelation in our midst.
We pay too much attention to our own problems,
our own pocketbook, and our own priorities.
Grant us new eyes to see the world.
Shape and mold our imaginations, so that we would be courageous with the gifts you have given us,
and unafraid of the responsibilities you place before us.
Help us to spread the joy of new life to all whom we encounter.
In the name of the risen Christ, we pray. Amen.

* Assurance of Pardon

Leader: Friends, believe the good news of the gospel.

the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost;
