From the Pews, Brock Koonce

As we move into a world of Covid vaccines and an understanding of our new reality, many are looking back to the last year and the trials and tribulations we all faced. Some felt overcome with the isolation from loved ones and friends while others struggled with feelings of loneliness and fear at what was to come. While those feelings permeated our everyday lives, we read the newspaper or turned on the TV and we saw even more struggle in the lives of our neighbors. It drove the entire world to see life in a different way, but also feel a sense of frustration and, at times, lacking faith in a positive outcome.

My life began to experience a personal shift in January of 2020 and then more in September. My belief in myself had begun to teeter and my health was beginning to become a concern. A short stay at the hospital and a diagnosis of diabetes was a jolting experience, but one that provided an enormous reminder and a renewed outlook.

I realized that, to get healthier and rebuild my certainty-of-self, I could not do it alone. Of course, I had the love of my wife and family. But I also realized that God was with me and my trust in him would help guide me on this journey. During this time, I spoke to God many times. There were days of trial throughout, but my faith remained assured that God was there with me and would not let me falter.

In Acts 5, the apostles were met with the threat of jail as they taught the people in the temple. They were brought before the Sanhedrin to be questioned regarding sharing the word of Jesus in public places. Throughout the threat of jail, the apostles remained resolute in their faith. They held steadfast in their trust that God would not let them be held from sharing their message. Their conviction in God's love never wavered.

Most of us have stories of hardships during our lives, especially during the last year. But, as we move forward each day, we can remain strong in our beliefs and fueled by our trust in God and the Holy Spirit. We can continue to know that we are counted worthy and God continues to walk with us, even through the toughest times.

* Call to Worship

Psalm 30:1-2, 4-5

Leader: I will extol you, O Lord, for you have drawn me up,
and did not let my foes rejoice over me.

People: O Lord my God, I cried to you for help,
and you have healed me.

Leader: Sing praises to the Lord, O you his faithful ones,
and give thanks to his holy name.

People: For his anger is but for a moment;
his favor is for a lifetime.

Leader: Weeping may linger for the night,
but joy comes in the morning.

All: Let us worship God!

* Prayer of Confession

Holy and loving God, we come before you today with faith that has been fearful, hearts that have been selfish,
and souls that have been stuck.
We hear the good news of Easter,
but are anxious to move on to other news.
We see the suffering of our neighbor,
but turn our eyes toward more comforting scenes.
We have followed the idols of competition and control,
failing to acknowledge the cost of our insecurity.
Forgive us, heal us, and redeem us, gracious God.
Let the light of Easter reshape our lives,
so that your joy may be shared abundantly
and your peace will be known by all. Amen.

* Assurance of Pardon

Leader: Friends, believe the good news of the gospel.
People: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

The Sacrament of Baptism

Francis Beckett Jones

Responding to God's Word

* Affirmation of Faith, The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost;
the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body;
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of Thanksgiving and Intercession

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts
as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
