VOLUME LXXIV | MAY 23, 2021 | No. 2A

From the Pews, Alissa Edwards

For as long as I can remember, serving and helping others has been a part of my life. As a little girl, my mother was very involved in helping the less fortunate in our community. She worked tirelessly trying to stop the cycle of mothers dropping out of high school because they had small children. Her goal was to ensure that these mothers got their GEDs and that their small children stayed in school, and also one day graduated from high school themselves. Seeing the work in our community that she was doing made me realize at a very young age that it was important to serve and help those in need in our community.

As a young adult and adult I have been on several mission trips with different churches. Most recently I chaperoned the high school mission trip to Chicago. While we were in Chicago, we worked in different places every day that served the city. Every day I was reminded how important these missions are. From food banks to care for the Hispanic elderly, to mental health missions, every day was eye opening to the needs of the city. Through our service that week, we reached all sorts of people in different situations and it felt like I had a purpose in serving those people.

Our scripture this week, Acts 2:1-21 tells about Pentecost. When I read the scripture, I think about how God is equipping us to serve in our world. Missions work also celebrates a cross-cultural worship experience. Missionaries can lead people to God. Whether it be a missionary in a Nicaraguan school or serving in a Japanese church, they are recognizing the beauty of different cultures and traditions. These different cultures with different languages being spoken all come back to one thing, God. God is here for us and God wants us to serve others and help others, regardless of the language they speak or their circumstances.

When I think about Westminster Presbyterian Church and the missions we contribute to with our time and our finances, it brings me great joy. Knowing that our family's pledge to our church goes to help people in our community, in our country, and in our world gives me a sense of accomplishment. Our tithes and offerings from our church help so many – and especially now during a pandemic those gifts are essential. When I think about the Christian church's mission to the world I am proud to say that Westminster is a great place to be.

God's Spirit joins with our spirits, to declare that we are children of God.

Come, Spirit of wisdom, and teach us to value the highest gifts.

Come, Spirit of understanding,

and show us all things in the light of eternity.

Come, Spirit of faithfulness,

and stir up our hearts to love and serve the Lord all our days.

Come, Holy Spirit!

Rain upon our dry and dusty lives,

so that new life would grow through you.

Let us worship God!

Hymn #280

“Come, O Spirit, Dwell Among Us”

Ebenezer

Prayer of Confession and Assurance of Pardon

Almighty God, you poured your Spirit upon gathered disciples, creating bold tongues, open ears,
and a new community of faith.

We confess that we hold back the force of your Spirit among us.

We do not listen for your word of grace,
speak the good news of your love,
or live as a people made one in Christ.

Have mercy on us, O God.

Transform our timid lives by the power of your Spirit.

Fill us with faith that conquers our fear,
fill us with hope that vanquishes our despair,
and fill us with love that reaches out to all.

We ask it in the name of Jesus Christ, our risen Lord. Amen.

Affirmation of Faith, The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated on the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.
