Worship Notes

Today we welcome Todd Monsell as organist at Westminster. Todd is also the Upper School Vocal Music Instructor at Christ Church Episcopal School, and brings considerable gifts to Westminster. We are grateful for his worship leadership.

NURSERY

Childcare is available for infants through 4K. Our nurturing staff of experienced caregivers and parent volunteers offers a welcoming environment for children. The Nursery is located on the mezzanine level. The entrance is at Westminster Drive, at the columbarium or near the Westminster Weekday School offices.

WORSHIP BAGS

Each Sunday we offer worship bags in the atrium for children. The worship bags are designed to include reusable items that engage children in open ended play during worship. While children attend worship with their families, they can participate in worship and play to make foundational layers of meaning for faith. Please return the zipper bag and its contents each Sunday. This shift to reusable items demonstrates how we value hospitality and care for creation. Special thanks to Tavia Young, Allison Muller, and Ruth Johnston for their faithful gifts to our children in this behind-the-scenes ministry.

Volunteers are needed to help from 1:30-2:30pm on June 6, 14, 22, and 27, and throughout the summer. VOLUME LXXV | May 29, 2022 | No. 4

From the Pews, Randall Fowler

The book of Isaiah is a tremendous book of the Bible filled with declarations of love, yearning for communion, and bold declarations of who God is to the people of Israel. In Isaiah 43:8-13, we read about a spiritual gauntlet being thrown down as the God of the Hebrew people challenges the idolaters and Hebrews who have strayed from their faith to defend their gods and idols, while launching into a brief reminder of how God's active love propelled him to rescue the children of Israel from their storied past.

We've all had moments when we've strayed from the right path. Maybe you can recall leaving home and questioning your family convictions as a young adult. Or maybe you remember that advice from a parent or mentor that was delivered to you when you weren't ready to listen, but now you shake your head and with a heavy sigh say to yourself, "If I could do that all over again..." If you can relate to those feelings, then you can relate to the Israelites who were stepping away from God and adhering to a value system that was incongruent with their ancestral faith.

With time we are blessed with experiences that show us how deeply God loves us and the variety of ways he shows us his love. The Israelites were no different than us in that capacity, but instead of decades of examples of love they had centuries worth of stories handed down from generation to generation. Imagine gathering around the hearth and hearing the stories of God using Deborah to defeat the Canaanites, of him working through Esther to foil the plans of Haman, and the classic story of the exodus from Egypt. After all of these moments of compassion-filled rescue, God continued to remind the Israelites that he has "revealed and saved" them and will be with them always.

In our own lives, how often do we forget about what God has done for us and need a reminder? Are there moments when we look to idols of prestige, importance, or vanity instead of to the God who loves us at our worst? My prayer today is that we will hold fast to our faith in the God who "deliver(s) us from evil" and that "goodness and mercy shall follow (us) all of (our) days."
