

Twelfth Sunday after Pentecost

Preparation for Worship

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. O Divine Master, grant that I may not seek so much to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

* Prayer of Confession

Gracious and holy God,
we know that we have behaved in ways
that are inconsistent with the gospel.
We have accumulated wealth and possessions,
when Jesus asks his disciples
to deny themselves and follow him.
We have focused our energies
on what would improve our own lives,
when Jesus asks us to love neighbor,
stranger, and enemy alike.
We have turned our back on others' suffering,
when Jesus asks us to carry another's cross.
Forgive us, O Lord, for we have practiced a shallow faith.
Renew our minds and reshape our imagination,
so that we may do justice, love kindness,
and walk humbly with you every day. Amen.

* Assurance of Pardon

Leader: Friends, believe the good news of the gospel.

People: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Worship Notes

NURSERY

Childcare is available for infants through 4K. Our nurturing staff of experienced caregivers and parent volunteers offers a welcoming environment for children. The Nursery is located on the mezzanine level. The entrance is at Westminster Drive, at the columbarium or near the Westminster Weekday School offices.

WORSHIP BAGS

Each Sunday we offer worship bags in the atrium for children. The worship bags are designed to include reusable items that engage children in open ended play during worship. While children attend worship with their families, they can participate in worship and play to make foundational layers of meaning for faith. Please return the zipper bag and its contents each Sunday. This shift to reusable items demonstrates how we value hospitality and care for creation.

CONNECT WITH WESTMINSTER

Looking for ways to be involved? Please complete a Connection Card from the Ritual of Friendship pad and place it in the offering plate to express interest or sign up for an opportunity.

WELCOME TO WPC!

VOLUME LXXV | August 28, 2022 | No. 17

From the Pews, Katherine Gettys

When was the last time you wrote a letter? Paul's letter to the Ephesians and his prayer for them in chapter 3 is beautiful and inspiring. There is so much to unpack from just 7 verses. I'd like to highlight one topic - using communication to uplift those who you helped to root.

Over the course of my short lifetime, communication has advanced significantly. While Paul used letters, we often use text, social media, email, and phone calls to connect. As communication has become easier it has also become more casual. I've been thankful to facetime SC family when we lived in Texas, connect from distant locations during waves of the pandemic, text photos to my college roommate to share our lives, and even send a quick message to my husband to say I'm on the way home from work. There are many perks to our modern interaction tools, but I do wonder if we have lost the most special and meaningful exchanges that previously came in the form of a real letter. In a time when it is easy to share on social media, send a snapchat, or even a text, as God's people, let's use the incredible communication tools at our fingertips to do more than "like" things. I am inspired by Paul's letter. We don't have to use pen and paper, but I hope we can still use the communication tools at our disposal to encourage one another in faith. The next time you commit to pray for someone-maybe write it out and send it in a text, email, or comment.

When Paul penned his letter to the Ephesians, he was imprisoned and awaiting trial. He was writing to encourage them in their young faith. He had spent time pouring into these people and now he is separated from them. August is an interesting time of year and it can be a time of new separation. I'm far removed from my school days, but August rather than January seems like the beginning of the year. My children have started back to kindergarten and 3rd grade. My neighbor just moved her youngest to college. Some are starting new jobs. Some have joined the military. These "leaving the nest" moments happen all year and are certainly a highlight of every August. As we "go" into the world or watch others we have invested in "go" into the world, we hope they are rooted in love. I imagine the Ephesians receiving Paul's letter and reading his prayer for them. Maybe this week we can all think of someone we have helped to root in love and send them a prayer. Who have you impacted as a teacher, coach, sibling, parent, coworker? I promise there is someone who would be encouraged in their faith to hear from you. If you are not sure what to say - use Paul's prayer as a guide. Pray they would be strengthened in faith and have the power to know the vastness of God's love, so they may feel full in every place they have ever felt empty.

The tools of communication have changed. May we use them for fun and for work etc. but not forget that words can be powerful. Let's take advantage of our modern tools to encourage growth in our brothers and sisters who are rooted in love.

Daughters & Disciples: Women in the New Testament

led by Leigh Stuckey

Room 209

Often when we think of the New Testament we remember Jesus' 12 disciples and the Apostle Paul, but women's stories are critical to Jesus' early ministry and the spread of the gospel in the first century. From Elizabeth and Anna to the Samaritan woman and Paul's early supports, women's stories are rich and can help inform modern discipleship. Join us for this lecture-style class.

Perspectives on Science and Faith

led by John MacCarthy

Room 212

This course will be structured around discussions of questions such as the following: What is science? What is religion? What is the purpose of science? What is the purpose of religion? Is there scientific evidence for the existence of God? Do astrophysics and evolution disprove the existence of the God of Hebrew scriptures? How are scientific and religious realities similar and different? How are scientific and religious thought similar and different? Is science fundamentally anti-religious? Is religion fundamentally anti-science? Are there ways in which they can support one another? What are miracles? Do they (did they) occur and what does science say? Does prayer "work?" Is religious experience "simply a brain state" or is it communion with God? What does science say about religious experience? What are scientific and religious perspectives on free will? Does God exist and are we able to know Him/Her/It?

WESTMINSTER PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
2007-2022

REACHING OUR 75TH ANNIVERSARY

From 1947-2007, Westminster had grown from a group of 23 people who were encouraged by First Presbyterian Church to give birth to a new church in the "developing Augusta Road area." By 2007 total active membership stood at 1,463. New fellowship groups were emerging to encourage members of our much larger church to involve themselves in smaller, more intimate gatherings. Two new groups in 2007 were Connections and the Centering Prayer Group, an outgrowth of the 2006 November Nights class taught by Associate Pastor Dave Carlson. February 2007 brought the Lenten and Mission Festival, which featured an international theme and brought attention to 14 missions in which WPC was involved. Mission work in Asia, Africa and The Dominican Republic were highlighted with individual stations, where WPC members explained and demonstrated their different work.

With continued growth in new members every month, Susan McLarty, our Volunteer Coordinator, helped assimilate these members into the mission life of the church. The New Member Assimilation Committee assisted in finding where newcomers could put their gifts and talents to good work. Barbara Stoop was honored by the DAR with a Community Service Award based on her many years of work with the Girl Scouts at the Pleasant Valley Connection. The summer of 2007 saw 15 Westminster youth attend the Montreat Youth Conference, accompanied by Elder Donn James and several other adults. The keynote speaker was the Reverend Scott Phillips, brother of WPC Associate Pastor, Steve Phillips.

After many capital campaigns, 2008 was the beginning of discussions to enlarge the sanctuary. Out of these discussions came "A Place for Everyone," the campaign to raise $6M to finish the plans that grew out of Freeman & Major's 25 Year Plan. In addition to making badly needed renovations to the existing building, the sanctuary was enlarged from seating for 368 to 676. The administrative wing would be completely renovated as well and would enclose the area formerly occupied as the Jenny Lee Easley Lounge and meditation garden into the Atrium we now enjoy. The formal dedication of the new sanctuary was held on August 30, 2009, when Lud Weaver preached a sermon entitled "I belong to..." Former Pastor Zane Moore was also on hand to participate in worship. The amazing, renovated and enlarged sanctuary was completed down to the last brick to resemble the former building's interior. By late 2009 the church's 25-year building plan had been accomplished. The carefully documented history of Westminster came to a close around this time with the publishing of Sue Inman's wonderful book, Growing in Faith - A History of Westminster Presbyterian Church (2007).

With continuing growth in technology, Live Stream Worship was begun in 2009. Christ Care groups emerged and became active; Westminster held its 20th Service of Memory and Celebration, honoring those members who had passed away during the year. In 2010 WPC became a member of GAIHN (Greenville Area Interfaith Hospitality Network - now known as IHN and part of United Ministries). This mission work involved individual churches physically hosting families dealing with homelessness; families lived and were provided meals at a host church for a week at a time and then moved to another host church.

Westminster had long been a church that offered such a varied program of activities for its members and families. By 2013 the church was sponsoring 30 different basketball teams competing against many other churches. Over the years, many adults headed this mammoth undertaking, including Forrest Harrison “Whitey” Kendall, Tommy Miller, Tim Raney, and Charles “Bubba” Puntch.

On September 29, 2013, Leigh Stuckey, a graduate of Presbyterian College and Princeton Theological Seminary, was ordained as Westminster’s Associate Pastor for Young Adults, Mission & Social Media. Leigh quickly became a strong and gifted teacher and preacher who brought the word to the congregation, both from the lectern and the pulpit.

WPC was fortunate to host the Moderator of the General Assembly (Rev. Dr. Heath Rada) around this time. Westminster Weekday School, opened in 1966, was expanded and now serving hundreds of children from WPC and the community at large. Always local mission minded, WPC donated $100K to The City of Greenville Housing Authority to facilitate a trust fund for affordable housing.

On May 28, 2017, Clemson University and Columbia Theological Seminary graduate, Mary Kathleen Duncan, was installed as Associate Pastor for Youth & Their Families. She told me recently that her call to ministry occurred when she was 12 and never waned. That same year, Westminster built another Habitat for Humanity house, one of several in recent years.

In 2018, long time Senior Pastor and Head of Staff, Lud Weaver, retired along with his wife, Jean, our Parish Associate. The Weavers had informed the Session of their plans to retire well in advance of this date; this facilitated a seamless transition in leadership. Barb Stoop, long-time Associate Pastor for Children, retired in the summer of 2019.

After a diligent and thorough search, on February 10, 2019, Ben Dorr was installed as our sixth Senior Pastor and Head of Staff. Ben, his wife Heather, and sons Cooper and Sam, quickly assimilated into the Westminster family. Ben’s preaching and gentle nature has served WPC so well in the 4 years he has led our congregation. Ben came to WPC from Northridge Presbyterian Church in Dallas; he’s a graduate of Carleton College and Princeton Theological Seminary.

On February 2, 2020, Lauren Slingerland was ordained and installed as Associate Pastor for Children & Their Families. A graduate of Furman University and Columbia Theological Seminary, and a former educator, Lauren is the “host” of It’s Elementary and Vacation Bible School, among other jobs. Her elementary education background and loving personality are serving us well. It’s Elementary is in its 26th year.

Rounding out our Pastoral Staff, Julia Watkins was installed as Associate Pastor for Mission & Congregational Life on October 17, 2021. Julia graduated from Davidson College and Princeton Theological Seminary; as with all of our Pastors, her sermons are meaningful, relevant, and inspiring.

The Giants of Westminster

Throughout its 75 year history, like any other family of faith, the majority of jobs and responsibilities at Westminster have been undertaken by volunteers. As I close out this final piece on WPC’s history, I would be remiss not to include what I will refer to as “The Giants of Westminster.” This is a group of people whose names should be given to new members – never to be forgotten. They are the people no longer among us, who built our church, day in and day out, brick by brick, by repeatedly being at the front of the line to do the jobs and take on the responsibilities necessary for Westminster to thrive. These individuals served God’s people both within our doors as well as out in the community and around the world. Some were among the 23 original pioneers who left First Presbyterian Church in 1947; others were charter members later in the 1940’s. All were ordained by God to serve as Elders or Deacons for more than one term. Many also served as Trustees as well. All gave sacrificially of their time, talents and resources and never said “No – not this year.” These incredibly dedicated men and women, with their families, were at the church every time the doors were open. The scriptures, values and moral teachings at WPC were a code they lived by and is what they taught their children. They were sinners in need of God’s grace, but the way they lived their lives was a testament of thanksgiving for His grace. They were chairs/members of the many building/capital campaigns to enlarge and improve our physical plant. They were Sunday School teachers, Superintendents, Youth leaders, and basketball coaches. They were the ones who went to the bank on some Mondays when meeting the church’s payroll was in doubt. They were chairs/members of the many pastoral search committees who brought us so many gifted pastors. They served the Denomination as members/chairs of Presbytery Council, the Synod of the South and as Commissioners of the General Assembly. These giants stayed when hundreds were leaving, and courageously worked to bring people together. They were the genesis for many local missions on whose boards they served and supported. They were loving, supportive friends of their pastors – even after they moved on in their careers. They were the ones who were vocal about the need for benevolences and mission mindedness. They encouraged us to take risks when the result could serve God’s people better. They stood in front of the church office to greet everyone who walked by as an informal greeter for decades. They said we need to dream again. Everyone in WPC’s family of faith volunteers from time to time, yet these were the ones who did every job in the church repeatedly and never said no. May God’s people know about and always remember their names and try to emulate their unwavering dedication to Westminster:
