

Fourth Sunday in Lent
Preparation for Worship

"...fallen man is not simply an imperfect creature who needs improvement; he is a rebel who must lay down his arms. Laying down your arms, surrendering, saying you are sorry, realizing that you have been on the wrong track...means killing part of yourself, undergoing a kind of death."

C.S. Lewis

Worship Notes

NURSERY

Childcare is available for infants through 4K. Our nurturing staff of experienced caregivers and parent volunteers offers a welcoming environment for children. The Nursery is located on the mezzanine level. The entrance is at Westminster Drive, at the columbarium or near the Westminster Weekday School offices.

WORSHIP BAGS

Each Sunday we offer worship bags in the atrium for children. The worship bags are designed to include reusable items that engage children in open ended play during worship. While children attend worship with their families, they can participate in worship and play to make foundational layers of meaning for faith. Please return the zipper bag and its contents each Sunday. This shift to reusable items demonstrates how we value hospitality and care for creation.

CONNECT WITH WESTMINSTER

Looking for ways to be involved? Please complete a Connection Card from the Ritual of Friendship pad and place it in the offering plate to express interest or sign up for an opportunity.

WELCOME TO WPC!

Please fill out a name tag and find more information about WPC at the Welcome Table in the Atrium. First time visitors are also invited to take home a WPC mug.

LENTEN SERMON SERIES:
BACK TO THE BASICS

During the season of Lent, our Sunday sermons will explore some of the basic doctrines and beliefs of the Christian faith. What does it mean to say that Jesus is fully human and fully God? Or to say that he died for us? What do words like sin and saved and suffering mean in our lives today? One of the goals of this series is to explore Christian faith from a Reformed/Presbyterian perspective, particularly during a time when denominations have become less relevant, and church membership has become much more fluid. This Sunday's sermon will address the question: What kind of sin do we believe in?

THEOLOGY READING GROUP

The Theology Reading Group will meet Monday, March 20, at 7p in the Charter Room. We will view portions of a documentary, "At the River: Grace and Struggle in the Segregated South", directed and produced by Carolyn Crowder. Pat Shufeldt will be the facilitator. Join us to view this informative and inspirational film. All are welcome.

VOLUME LXXV | March 19, 2023 | No. 47

From the Pews, Neil Shurley

"All who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted."
 - Luke 18:14

"Oh lord it's hard to be humble when you're perfect in every way."
 - Mac Davis

There's such a push and pull going on in my heart, all the time. Maybe you've got similar feelings.

I recently contributed to a fundraiser, not for myself and not to make me feel good, but because I sincerely wanted to help another family. But I was the first contributor and I found myself feeling uncomfortably yet smugly proud that my status as first contributor was listed on the front page of the fundraiser. I didn't try to be first, but it sure feels good to be first. It's the same when I contribute to any worthy cause - I don't give my time/money to glorify myself but I am eager to see my name on the official thank you list.

Similarly, I've spent the last few weeks performing in a play, and while I don't do it for the glory, and, in fact, I duck out of the theatre as quickly as possible after a show, I sure am disappointed if someone doesn't tell me I did a good job.

It's hard to be humble when you've put yourself out there, when you've done what you think is the right thing. Don't we all want a little recognition? If not a moment in the actual spotlight, at least a pat on the back?

I take comfort in the fact that this is a universal problem, an issue so prevalent that it's addressed in multiple ways throughout the bible.

"Beware of practicing your righteousness before others in order to be seen by them."

"Whenever you give alms, do not sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, so that they may be praised by others."

"Whenever you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and at the street corners, so that they may be seen by others."

"All who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted."

Oh lord, it's hard to be humble. Especially when you've written a perfect Harbinger cover.

What can we do to mitigate global warming and its impacts? What are our responsibilities as Christians? This course will seek to answer these and other questions.
