

Easter Sunday

Preparation for Worship

It was not as the flowers,
Each soft spring recurrent...
Let us not seek to make it less monstrous,
For our own convenience, our own sense of beauty,
Lest, awakened in one unthinkable hour, we are embarrassed
By the miracle...

From John Updike's "Seven Stanzas of Easter"

Gathering and Preparing for God's Word

* Call to Worship

Leader: Glory to you, O God: on this day you won victory over death, raising Jesus from the grave and giving us eternal life.
People: Glory to you, O Christ: for us and for our salvation you overcame death and opened the gate to everlasting life.
Leader: Glory to you, O Holy Spirit: you lead us into the truth.
People: Glory to you, O Blessed Trinity, now and forever.
All: Let us worship God!

* Hymn 232 "Jesus Christ Is Risen Today" EASTER HYMN

* Prayer of Confession

Almighty God, in raising Jesus from the grave,
you shattered the power of sin and death.
We confess that we remain captive to doubt and fear,
bound by the ways that lead to death.
We overlook the poor and the hungry,
and pass by those who mourn.
We are deaf to the cries of the oppressed,
and indifferent to calls for peace.
We despise the weak, and abuse the earth you made.
Forgive us, God of mercy.
Help us to trust your power to change our lives and make us new,
that we may know the joy of life abundant given in Jesus Christ,
the risen Lord. Amen.

* Assurance of Pardon

Leader: Friends, believe the good news of the gospel.
People: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

* Gloria Patri, Hymn 581 GLORIA PATRI

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen, Amen.

11:15a Children in K5 - first grade are invited to leave for Children's Church.

* Affirmation of Faith The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost;
the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body;
and the life everlasting. Amen.

NEW BEGINNINGS: THE FLOWERING CROSS

Beginning after the Good Friday service, you are invited to bring flowers or greenery from your home to "flower" the cross on the lawn by the bell tower.

We believe the flowering cross can act as a reminder of the power of our faith and our collective witness. The cross at full bloom proclaims Christianity's most profound truth: that God creates hope where there was none, life from death, an empty tomb from a Roman cross. In flowering the cross we are reminded that there is no Easter celebration without first confronting Good Friday, no empty tomb without the shadow of the cross. And, most importantly, we are reminded that death, exile, and darkness never have the final word.

The flowering cross appears in Christian art as early as the 6th century and is believed to have come from a legend that Christ's cross burst into bloom after Jesus' death.

WORSHIP NOTES

NURSERY

Childcare is available for infants through 4K. Our nurturing staff of experienced caregivers and parent volunteers offers a welcoming environment for children. The Nursery is located on the mezzanine level. The entrance is at Westminster Drive, at the columbarium or near the Westminster Weekday School offices. The Family Lounge, located down the stairs from the front office and straight down the hallway on the right, is available for any child caregiver and includes worship livestream, comfortable seating, and a changing table.

WORSHIP BAGS

Each Sunday we offer worship bags in the Atrium for children. The worship bags are designed to include reusable items that engage children in open ended play during worship. While children attend worship with their families, they can participate in worship and play to make meaning in faith. Please return the zipper bag and its contents each Sunday.

WELCOME TO WPC!

Please fill out a name tag and find more information about WPC at the Welcome Table in the Atrium. First time visitors are also invited to take home a WPC mug.

Join Westminster members and families on our inaugural international pilgrimage! The 12-day journey provides a deep dive into the Scottish roots of the Presbyterian Church as well as its contemporary expression in the Church of Scotland. Highlights include Edinburgh and Glasgow, the Isle of Iona with its evocative abbey, and key sites related to the life and ministry of John Knox in St. Andrews and Edinburgh. Travelers of all ages are welcome. The trip is designed to partially overlap with Greenville County Schools Spring Break. Spots are limited and can be reserved at the Progressive Pilgrimage portal [https://progressivepilgrimage.com/westminster/]. The estimated cost is $5971/person with a single supplement of $950. Round trip airfare, entry fees, transportation-in-country, daily breakfasts, five lunches, seven dinners, and all tips are included. Contact Leigh Stuckey for more information.

Watch the Harbinger and eNews for details and to sign up. Email Leigh Stuckey with questions.

WESTMINSTER BOOK CLUB

The WPC Book Club will meet on Tuesday, April 2, at 6:30p in the Library. Deb Wiswell will lead our discussion of The Lions of Fifth Avenue by Fiona Davis. Set in the New York Public Library, the story involves the family who lived there in the early 1900s, as well as a present-day descendant. Thefts of rare books, feminism, and family loyalties create an intriguing plot. All are welcome!

CONNECTIONS GROUP

Connections, a lunch group for singles and couples, will meet at Stella's Southern Bistro (684 Fairview Rd, Simpsonville) on Sunday, April 14, at 12:45p after the 11:15 worship service. RSVP to ruthjohnst51@gmail.com by Friday, April 12. Newcomers are always welcome!

VOLUME LXXVI | March 31, 2024 | No. 50

From the Pews, Joey Fievet

Our scripture reading for this week, Mark 16:1-8, concludes the Gospel of Mark and leaves us with a most perplexing question. What now? In closing his gospel in this manner, Mark shows us his genius. Rather than taking us through the various sightings and interactions with his disciples and his crucifixion, Mark leaves us to wonder what happened next. Why the empty tomb? Why the heavenly messenger inside the tomb? We are filled with questions, astonishment, bewilderment, and hope.

What does happen next? What are we to do? Mark stimulates us to continue our journey - and thereby deepen and solidify our faith. So many questions... We must find answers.

To help us find those answers I recommend Amy-Jill Levine's book, The Gospel of Mark. As a professor of New Testament and Jewish studies at Vanderbilt University, she presents a uniquely stimulating view of Mark's gospel. She juxtaposes moral, life-threatening issues of Biblical times with dilemmas we are facing today. Again, so many questions.

What does it mean to be a Christian? Do we show it in our everyday lives? Do we merely come to services on Sunday - or do we volunteer in distributing food, in working with Habitat for Humanity, in visiting shut-ins, etc? Do we reach out beyond what is comfortable to connect, to give, and to live as Christ would have us to do? Mark's conclusion in Chapter 16 leaves us open to all these questions and more.

And finally, the stone was rolled away from the tomb - signifying that God removed the barrier to free us from death. Jesus is alive! The resurrection is our hope for things to come. It is time to rejoice and spread God's word!
