

Fourth Sunday after Epiphany
Preparation for Worship

My Lord God, I have no idea where I am going.
I do not see the road ahead of me.
I cannot know for certain where it will end, nor do I really know myself.
And the fact that I think I am following your will does not mean that I am actually doing so.
But I believe that the desire to please you does in fact please you...
Therefore I will trust you always though I may seem to be lost and in the shadow of death.
I will not fear, for you are ever with me,
and you will never leave me to face my perils alone.

Thomas Merton

* Prayer of Confession

Almighty God,
we confess that our faith has been feeble
and overshadowed by our fear.
We crave control,
prioritizing our desires over our neighbor's needs.
We pretend that our worth
depends on performance and possessions,
instead of on your gracious promise.
We imagine that we are self-made people,
ignoring our need for your goodness and grace.
Forgive us, Holy One.
Let your Spirit rekindle our courage and restore our sight,
so that we would bear one another's burdens,
welcome the stranger,
and stand with those who are desperate and forgotten.
We ask it all in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

* Assurance of Pardon

Leader: Friends, believe the good news of the gospel.
People: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

NURSERY

Childcare is available for infants through 4K. Our nurturing staff of experienced caregivers and parent volunteers offers a welcoming environment for children. The Nursery is located on the mezzanine level. The entrance is at Westminster Drive, at the columbarium or near the Westminster Weekday School offices. The Family Lounge, located down the stairs from the front office and straight down the hallway on the right, is available for any child caregiver and includes worship livestream, comfortable seating, and a changing table.

WORSHIP BAGS

Each Sunday we offer worship bags in the Atrium for children. The worship bags are designed to include reusable items that engage children in open ended play during worship. While children attend worship with their families, they can participate in worship and play to make meaning in faith. Please return the zipper bag and its contents each Sunday.

SPRING SERMON SERIES

The World Turned Upside Down:
Exploring the Gospel of Luke

In some ways, Luke is the most well-known and beloved of the four Gospels. Only in Luke do we hear about shepherds at Christmas, the parables of the good Samaritan and the prodigal son, and the Easter story of the road to Emmaus. Luke is a Gospel with prominent themes of table fellowship, forgiveness, and joy. At the same time, some of the most challenging words and parables of Jesus are found in Luke—teachings that deal with repentance, money, and lost opportunities to live for God. Our sermon series this spring will explore Luke, and the “upside down” kingdom of God that Jesus preaches in this Gospel. Our subject this week is faith and desperation.

HERITAGE LECTURE - 2025

Announcing the 2025 Heritage Lecturer, the Reverend Dr. Hunter Farrell. Join us on Sunday, February 23, to hear Dr. Farrell preach at both 9a and 11:15a. He will also lead the adult Sunday School class. Farrell previously served the PCUSA as Director of World Mission, and is presently the Leader of World Mission Initiative at Pittsburgh Theological Seminary. He is also the author of Freeing Congregational Mission: A Practical Vision for Companionship, Cultural Humility, and Co-Development.

FIRST STEPS IN MUSIC

Music is an important way to communicate with young children even before they are able to sing along. First Steps in Music is an opportunity at Westminster that provides important time for parents or grandparents to enjoy music with their child/grandchild. Led by Diana Dailey, the First Steps classes teach simple songs, games, and prayers for two- and three-year olds and adults to experience together. The next class will be offered from 4-4:30p and 4:30-5p beginning this Sunday, February 2. Click here to register or contact Diana Dailey for more information.

MAGI MARKET UPDATE

Thank you, thank you, thank you, Westminster! Magi Market provided gifts for over 100 kids in more than 40 families from the Pleasant Valley neighborhood as well as Soteria and Thornwell. You donated over 400 toys plus books, board games, and blankets for each family. We had more than 75 volunteers help to create the magic. We are truly grateful for your generosity and look forward to the next one. Stay tuned for details in the Fall!

VOLUME LXXVII | February 2, 2025 | No. 43

From the Pews, Scott & Susan Clark

Bill Nock was a waist gunner on a B-24 Liberator named the Niagara Special. In January 1945, he jumped out of that plane near the Moselle River in France after it was crippled by flak on the return flight following a bombing mission of an industrial facility at Werminghoff, Germany.

Bill Hughes was a soldier in the 29th Infantry Division. In June 1944, he came ashore at the Dog Green Sector of Omaha Beach in Normandy and subsequently fought with the 29th in the liberation of France in places like Saint-Lô and Brest.

Both men survived the war and returned home to the Eastern Shore of Maryland where they built lives and raised families. Their lives and families intersected when their son and daughter were married. Eventually, they became Poppop Nock and Poppop Hughes to grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

In December, we were part of a multi-generational family trip to France. In addition to all of the other sights, charms and tastes of France, we passed through the mountainous Alsace-Lorraine region and in doing so we crossed the Moselle River and later made a pilgrimage of sorts to the bluffs and beaches of Normandy.

When Bill Nock parachuted down over the Moselle, one side was occupied by Germans and the other by the Allies. He was fortunate and landed on the Allies' side. But he was in crisis – alone and a long way from safety.

It is doubtful that you require a full description of the perils that Bill Hughes confronted in Normandy and subsequent campaigns. Standing on Omaha Beach you are struck by the seeming impossibility of the task that those soldiers faced – get off the water, onto that beach, up that hill, all the while you are being shot at by an enemy who is fortified and on high ground. They were in crisis.

When you are in crisis – feeling alone and unsafe or facing what seems like insurmountable challenges – where do you look for help?

For Bill Nock in 1945, being alone meant he had to rely on himself until the help he needed arrived. Ultimately, that help came in the form of a patrol unit from the 3rd Army who found him and picked him up just south of Thionville.

On the beach and on campaign, Bill Hughes had the men in formation to his left, right, front and back on which to rely – those that surrounded him.

Back on the beach in Normandy, our tour guide astutely observed to our assembled family group that if not for each of those men surviving their crisis and earning safe passage through the war, none of us – ages ranging from 19 to 78, in-laws and outlaws – would be standing on that beach on December 31, 2024. Some in the group would have been elsewhere while some would never have been at all.

We will all face crisis in our lives. Turns out, how we are able to deal with crisis is important and can potentially have dramatic consequences. The ability to have faith that you are not alone, that God is with you and you will not face any challenge you cannot handle is a blessing for sure. If you do not possess that blessing, that is, if doubts and fear overcome your faith and you find yourself in crisis, what do you do?

Sometimes the help you need finds you and then you are no longer alone and you are reassured and feel safe. Sometimes you can count on help from the people that are already surrounding you in your life – to the left, right, front and back. Those people on that beach. Count on them.
