Youth Sunday
Everyday Miracles

Preparation for Worship

“The Gospel of John is more interested in what the events of Jesus’ life mean. John assumes the reader knows the outcome of the story. It is not written to uncover the events of Jesus’ life, but to express what those events mean for people of faith and to proclaim Jesus’ identity as the Messiah.”

– The CEB Student Bible

VOLUME LXXVII | February 9, 2025 | No. 44

From the Youth Group

Did you know that the Gospel of John features seven “signs” or miracles and seven “I Am” sayings of Jesus?

Signs/Miracles in the Gospel of John:

1. Water to wine
2. Healing a royal official's son
3. Healing at the pool of Bethsaida
4. Feeding of the 5,000
5. Walking on water
6. Healing a man born blind
7. Raising of Lazarus

“I Am” Sayings in the Gospel of John:

1. I am the bread of life
2. I am the light of the world
3. I am the gate
4. I am the good shepherd
5. I am the resurrection and the life
6. I am the way, the truth, and the life
7. I am the true vine

John 20:31 says, “But these things are written so that you will believe that Jesus is the Christ, God's Son, and that believing, you will have life in his name.” This school year, WPCYG has been studying these miracles and sayings. Some of the stories are also found in the other gospels, such as the Feeding of the 5,000 or Jesus Walking on Water. Others, like changing Water to Wine at the wedding in Cana or the Raising of Lazarus are unique to John. The “I Am” sayings are all unique to John, but they harken back to Exodus 3 and Moses' encounter with the great “I Am” at the burning bush. During both worship services this week, you will hear our seniors proclaim God's words through the lens of these stories and sayings. They will tell you about the extraordinary and ordinary miracles of their everyday lives. We recently studied the penultimate sign of the Healing of the man born blind in John 9. When questioned why this man was born blind Jesus said, “so that God's mighty works might be displayed in him.” (John 9:3) I think this claim can extend to each of our lives. No matter how messy, mundane, ordinary, or extraordinary they are, God's mighty works can be displayed through us, our living, and our circumstances. One of my everyday miracles is working with the youth of our congregation. I see God's mighty works displayed in them regularly. They are amazing. They are fun. They are faithful. They are interesting. They are committed. They are hopeful. May you get a glimpse of one of my everyday miracles through these special worship services.
