Sunday, October 12, 2025 |On Demand on YouTube|9a & 11:15a

Eighteenth Sunday after Pentecost
Preparation for Worship

“The Decalogue stands as a critical principle of protest against every kind of exploitative social relation...and as a social vision of possibility that every social relation (public and interpersonal, economic and political) can be transformed and made into a liberating relation...the commandments are the foundational absolutes of God's purpose in the world. They disclose the non-negotiable will of God.”

Walter Brueggemann

Holy God,
we know that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed.
We have done that which we ought not to have done.
We have failed to do that which you have asked us to do.
We have shrugged our shoulders at the poor.
We have turned our backs on the most vulnerable.
Forgive us, gracious Lord.
Help us to see our transgressions clearly,
and grant us courage to change our ways.
Mold our minds according to your wisdom,
and renew our hearts by your grace.
Strengthen our resolve to love our neighbors in more faithful and fruitful ways. Amen.

* Assurance of Pardon

and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

FALL SERMON SERIES:

THE EXODUS STORY:

FAITH, FEAR, & FREEDOM

Our fall sermon series will explore the story of the Exodus: God's liberation of the Hebrew people from slavery in Egypt. It's a story about what it means to be heard by God, saved by God, and called into covenant relationship with God. It's a story of fear and courage, of wandering in the wilderness, of God's transcendence and God's imminence, of what it means to live in covenant community with one another. It's the central salvation story of the Old Testament, and one that echoes throughout the New Testament as well. To help you follow along, we will provide scripture passages to read in preparation for the upcoming Sundays. For the next three weeks, the suggested readings are the following:

Oct 12: Exodus 20:1-17
Oct 19: Exodus 32:1-14
Oct 26: Deuteronomy 15:1-11

VOLUME LXXVIII | October 12, 2025 | No. 27

From the Pews, Janie Little

As summer gives way to fall, we welcome the familiar signs of the season — the crispness in the air, the beauty of changing leaves, the excitement of football games, the scent of pumpkin spice, and yes... even the arrival of Stewardship Season at Westminster Presbyterian Church!

While stewardship may not be at the top of everyone’s “fall favorites” list, I have come to genuinely appreciate this season. Each year, I look forward to hearing members of our congregation share their stories from the lectern about how Westminster has shaped their lives, why they give, and what our church means to them. I’ve also been moved by the sermons during this season, which often challenge and inspire me in meaningful ways.

When I reflect on what Westminster means to me, and why Charles and I choose to give, the answer is simple — this church has been a cornerstone of our lives for the past 36 years. To list every reason why we joined and stayed would take pages. But if I had to capture it in one word, that word would be: everything.

Westminster has been central to my faith journey. My faith is not just something I practice on Sundays — it defines who I am. It influences how I make decisions, how I treat others, how I spend my time, and how I use the resources God has entrusted to me. This church reminds me daily of who I am and whose I am. It grounds me in the call to follow Christ and to live a life of purpose and service.

Westminster has nurtured not only my faith but also the faith of my family. Over the years, this community has walked with us through joys and challenges, offering support, teaching, and love. We are who we are today because of the faith formation and fellowship we have found here.

So why do we give — our time, our talents, and our resources to WPC? Because God calls us to do so.

“We love because He first loved us.” – 1 John 4:19

We give in response to God’s generous love. We give because God has entrusted creation — and this community — to our care. Supporting the church is not only an act of gratitude, but also a commitment to the ongoing work of God in the world.

Thirty-six years ago, we chose Westminster as our church home. And as long as we are part of this family of faith, we will continue to support it with grateful hearts.

Exodus 20:1-17

Then God spoke all these words:

²I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; ³you shall have no other gods before me.

⁴You shall not make for yourself an idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. ⁵You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I the Lord your God am a jealous God, punishing children for the iniquity of parents, to the third and the fourth generation of those who reject me, ⁶but showing steadfast love to the thousandth generation of those who love me and keep my commandments.

⁷You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the Lord your God, for the Lord will not acquit anyone who misuses his name.

⁸Remember the sabbath day, and keep it holy. ⁹For six days you shall labor and do all your work. ¹⁰But the seventh day is a sabbath to the Lord your God; you shall not do any work—you, your son or your daughter, your male or female slave, your livestock, or the alien resident in your towns. ¹¹For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but rested the seventh day; therefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day and consecrated it.

¹²Honor your father and your mother, so that your days may be long in the land that the Lord your God is giving you.

¹³You shall not murder.

¹⁴You shall not commit adultery.

¹⁵You shall not steal.

¹⁶You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

¹⁷You shall not covet your neighbor’s house; you shall not covet your neighbor’s wife, or male or female slave, or ox, or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.
