* Affirmation of Faith

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated on the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

WORSHIP NOTES

NURSERY

Childcare is available for infants through 4K. Our nurturing staff of experienced caregivers and parent volunteers offers a welcoming environment for children. The Nursery is located on the mezzanine level. The entrance is at Westminster Drive, at the columbarium or near the Westminster Weekday School offices. The Family Lounge, located down the stairs from the front office and straight down the hallway on the right, is available for any child caregiver and includes worship livestream, comfortable seating, and a changing table.

WORSHIP BAGS

Each Sunday we offer worship bags in the Atrium for children. The worship bags are designed to include reusable items that engage children in open ended play during worship. While children attend worship with their families, they can participate in worship and play to make meaning in faith. Please return the zipper bag and its contents each Sunday.

VOLUME LXXVIII | November 30, 2025 | No. 34

From the Pews, Amanda Warren

I don't know about you, but I do not like the unknown. I prefer the comfort of events and outcomes that are expected and can be controlled. My husband learned early on in our dating life that I do not like surprises. The unknown is unsettling to me. I thrive with an organized calendar and the ability to make plans and then carry them out.

Unfortunately, today's scripture describes the exact opposite of a planned event occurring. In this passage from the Gospel of Matthew, Jesus says that the day and hour of his Second Coming will be unknown to all except for the Father (including to Jesus himself!). Jesus speaks of multiple groups of people in which one person will be taken and the other will be left behind. Earlier in this book of Matthew, Jesus tells of the signs that will let us know that the Second Coming is near. However, he also warns that humans have a history of not paying attention to important signs and that we must be ready because the Son of Man will come at an hour we do not expect.

Well, darn. The Second Coming does not sound like it fits into my likes or plans. Actually, the Second Coming sounds like quite an alarming moment. People will be going about their usual lives and then half of the population will suddenly disappear!

But what if this moment doesn't have to be so scary? What if we can actually approach the Second Coming with joy instead of fear? How can we create a feeling of awe and thankfulness instead of apprehension about the Second Coming despite our inability to add this event to our personal or family planners?

When talking to his disciples in this passage, Jesus speaks explicitly of the need for watchfulness. There is a lot going on in the world right now that we need to be paying attention to, including treatment of minority groups, our neighbors' hunger or lack of an affordable home, genocide, global warming, and systems that perpetuate racism. The list goes on. I am not a Biblical expert, but I bet if we commit to living a life of watchfulness and then respond to what we see in the way Jesus calls us to respond, we won't be startled by the Second Coming. If we "keep awake" as Jesus instructed and live the lives of connection and care that our faith demands, we can be ready. Even me, and even if that special day is not noted on my calendar.

INSTRUCTIONS
FOR COMMUNION TODAY

If you are seated in the main section of pews, you will proceed up the center aisle to receive communion. Please wait for an usher to prompt your row. Please take communion from one of the serving stations at the front of the chancel and return to your pew via the side aisle.

When you come to a serving station, take a piece of bread from the plate, dip the bread in the cup, and eat. All cups contain grape juice.

If you are seated in the transept pews at either side of the sanctuary, you will take communion from the servers at the back of the transept. The section of pews closest to the chancel will go first. Please wait to be prompted by the usher. When prompted, please proceed down the center aisle of the transept, take communion at the back of the transept, returning to your pew via the side transept aisle closest to your pew.

Please remain quiet during communion so that those who wish to pray may do so.

If you would like to receive communion but are unable to come forward, or if you would simply prefer to remain seated, there are two rovers to provide you with communion, one on each side aisle. When the rovers approach your pew, simply raise your hand to indicate that you would like to receive communion in your seat.

The bread we are offering at today's communion is labeled by the manufacturer as gluten, nut, egg, and dairy free, and includes the following ingredients: water, sour dough (rice flour, water), rice starch, cornstarch, sugars (rice syrup, caramelized sugar), modified cellulose, psyllium seed husk (vegetable fibre), sunflower oil, pea protein, yeast, millet flour, citrus fibre, rice flour, quinoa flour, salt, guar gum, corn flour.
